Afghan-Soviet Wrestling Bouts

KABUL, July 1-The first bouts between Afghan and Soviet wrestlers were held in Kabul yesterday. The event was attended by a large crowd of people who had queued for hours to gain entry to the stadium.

The Afghan wrestlers displayed great strength and skill, and their matches were highly competitive. The crowd cheered them on loudly as they fought against the Soviet wrestlers.

The Afghan Sofia, in particular, impressed the audience with her agility and grace as she deftly navigated the wrestling ropes. She showcased her skills by performing a series of acrobatic moves that left the audience in awe.

The Soviet wrestlers, on the other hand, demonstrated their superior technique and strength, easily overcoming their opponents in most matches. The crowd's applause was more frequent and louder as the Soviet wrestlers achieved their victories.

The event was a significant milestone in the sports diplomacy between the two countries, pointing towards a broader cultural and sporting engagement.

THOMBE ALLEGES ATTACK ON KATANGANES

LESHINDWAN, July 7, (Reuters) - Thombé, a former government minister from Katangese, has been reported to have been attacked by soldiers of the Katangese Army last week. The attack took place in the town of Shabunda, and Thombé is currently recovering in a hospital in Kinshasa.

The Katangese Army, which has been fighting against the government of the Democratic Republic of Congo, has denied any involvement in the attack. However, Thombé alleges that the soldiers were acting on orders from the Katangese Army.
