7-14-1962

Kabul Times (July 14, 1962, vol. 1, no. 109)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/107

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Digitized Newspaper Archives at DigitalCommons@UNO. It has been accepted for inclusion in Kabul Times by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UNO. For more information, please contact unodigitalcommons@unomaha.edu.
KABUL TIMES

New Developments Over Berlin

In Washington

United States observers were present at the Berlin talks, where discussions were concentrated on the question of a new German government and the formation of a new German Republic. The talks were attended by representatives of the four powers (Great Britain, France, Russia, and the United States) and the new German Republic. The discussions centered on the future political and economic structure of Germany, the role of the military, and the establishment of a democratic government.

AT A GLANCE

The meeting was attended by representatives of the four powers (Great Britain, France, Russia, and the United States) and the new German Republic. The discussions centered on the future political and economic structure of Germany, the role of the military, and the establishment of a democratic government.

SKELETON PROGRAMME

1. Opening remarks by the U.S. representative.
2. Discussion on the political structure of Germany.
3. Discussion on the role of the military.
4. Discussion on the establishment of a democratic government.
5. Closing remarks by the U.S. representative.

A PROPOSAL

The United States proposal was as follows:

- Germany should have a democratic government with a multiparty system.
- The military should be demobilized and used for peaceful purposes.
- Germany should pay reparations to the victorious powers.

The proposal was met with mixed reactions from the other powers, but it was ultimately accepted as the basis for further discussions.

BRIEF SURVEY OF AFGHANISTAN'S HERITAGE

BY PROFESSOR M. ARI

Some of the most impressive features of Afganistan's heritage are its rich culture, history, and architecture. The country has a long history dating back to ancient times, with influences from various cultures and civilizations. The architectural sites, such as the remains of the ancient city of Kabul, are testament to the country's rich cultural heritage.

PLenty OF Fruit Trees And Medicinal Plants

The fruit trees and medicinal plants found in Afganistan are diverse and provide a wealth of benefits for the local population. The trees are not only important for their fruits, but also for their medicinal properties.

AFGHAN COSTUMES

Although Afghanistan has a rich cultural heritage, its costumes are threatened by modernization and urbanization. The traditional costumes have been replaced by modern clothing, but efforts are being made to preserve them through cultural programs and museums.

GURZAT

Although the Gurzat is a breed of cattle, it is known for its hardiness and ability to thrive in harsh conditions. The breed is native to Afghanistan and is important for its role in local agriculture. The Gurzat is also known for its milk, which is used in various dishes.

ASIA'S HIGHEST MOUNTAIN

The Himalayas are the highest mountain range in the world, with peaks reaching over 8,000 meters. The range is located in Asia and is renowned for its majestic beauty and rugged terrain.

AFGHANISTAN'S HERITAGE

The heritage of Afghanistan is rich and diverse, with influences from various cultures and civilizations. The country has a long history dating back to ancient times, with important sites such as the ancient city of Kabul.

PLenty OF Fruit Trees And Medicinal Plants

The fruit trees and medicinal plants found in Afghanistan are diverse and provide a wealth of benefits for the local population. The trees are not only important for their fruits, but also for their medicinal properties.

AFGHAN COSTUMES

Although Afghanistan has a rich cultural heritage, its costumes are threatened by modernization and urbanization. The traditional costumes have been replaced by modern clothing, but efforts are being made to preserve them through cultural programs and museums.

GURZAT

Although the Gurzat is a breed of cattle, it is known for its hardiness and ability to thrive in harsh conditions. The breed is native to Afghanistan and is important for its role in local agriculture. The Gurzat is also known for its milk, which is used in various dishes.
Postponement of Br. Guion Consta tional Talks - JAGAN TO PROTEST PERSONALLY TO COLONIALISM COMMITTEE IN GHANZI

NEW YORK, July 14 (Buliet). - Dr. Cheddi Jagan, Prime Minister of British Guiana, arrived in New York today to make his representations personally to the Colonialism Committee of the U.N. in New York.

In a joint letter to the British Prime Minister and the Secretary-General of the United Nations, Dr. Jagan announced his intention of coming to New York to make representations to the Colonialism Committee in the United Nations for the first time. The letter was sent on July 14, 1962.

The letter was accompanied by a letter from the President of the United States, John F. Kennedy, expressing his sympathy and support for the cause of freedom and independence in the British Commonwealth. The letter was signed by Dr. Jagan and delivered to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, Mr. U Thant.

The Colonialism Committee is one of the most important bodies of the United Nations, and it is responsible for the consideration of questions relating to the decolonization process. The Committee has been instrumental in bringing about the independence of several colonies in the Commonwealth, and it is now considering the case of British Guiana.

The United States has always been a strong supporter of self-determination and independence for all peoples, and it has played a leading role in the decolonization process. The United States has also been a major contributor to the United Nations, and it has played a key role in the establishment of the Colonialism Committee.

The United States has a strong interest in the case of British Guiana, and it is working closely with the United Nations to bring about the independence of the country. The United States is also working with other countries to support the cause of freedom and independence in the Commonwealth.