Pakhtunistanis Blow Up Bridge In Sikanado

KABUL, July 25—A report from Peshawar, northern Pakistan, states that a group of Pakhtuni Stanis has blown up a bridge on the main supply route between the Afghan cities of Peshawar and Jalalabad. The operation was carried out as a response to alleged harassment by the Afghan government. The bridge was repaired within a few days, and traffic resumed.

Release Of Americans

SOEPAHGOVUN'SS

VIENNA, July 25—(AP).—The Laotian leader, Prince Souphanouvong, has been released in Vienna, Austria. He had been held in custody since March 27, when Austria detained him for entering the country without a visa. The royalist in his statement, expressed hope for improved relations between Laos and Austria.

THE WEATHER

KABUL TIMES

KABUL, Thursday, July 25, 1963 (AGAD 4, 1963 S.R.)

215 New Houses In Shiberghan

SHIBERGHAN, July 25—Two hundred and fifteen new houses were recently erected in the city of Shiberghan, Nangarhar province. The houses will be occupied by some 1,300 people, including government officials and their families. The program was launched by the Ministry of Housing and Public Works.

Resumption Of Tests

JAPAN TO PROTEST TO U.S. OVER NORTH KOREAN VIOLENT ACTS

TOKYO, July 25—The Japanese Foreign Minister, Mr. Akira Shigemitsu, indicated Japan's opposition to the North Korean violent acts. He said that Japan would not accept any action that would disturb regional peace.

The Western Disarmament Proposal

The Western Disarmament Proposal, which aims to achieve disarmament, is expected to be ratified by the United States and the Soviet Union in the near future. The proposal has been welcomed by many countries, including the United Kingdom and France.

AKIRA SHIGEMITSU

Akira Shigemitsu, Japan's Foreign Minister, arrived in Kabul yesterday for a two-day visit. He is expected to meet with President Marshal Shahnobad and discuss various bilateral issues.

The Shah of Iran, who is currently visiting Tokyo, will attend a concert in Kabul on July 29 to celebrate the 20th anniversary of his accession to the throne.

Shah's Visit to Afghanistan

The Shah of Iran, who is currently visiting Tokyo, will arrive in Kabul on July 29 to celebrate the 20th anniversary of his accession to the throne.

Move With The Times

Read

KABUL TIMES

KABUL TIMES

KABUL, Thursday, July 25, 1963 (AGAD 4, 1963 S.R.)

May Your Heart Be eas

To all our readers:

This edition of the KABUL TIMES is dedicated to all our readers, especially those who have contributed to its success. We are grateful for your support and look forward to continuing to serve you with informative and relevant content.

THE WEATHER

KABUL TIMES

KABUL, Thursday, July 25, 1963 (AGAD 4, 1963 S.R.)

215 New Houses In Shiberghan

SHIBERGHAN, July 25—Two hundred and fifteen new houses were recently erected in the city of Shiberghan, Nangarhar province. The houses will be occupied by some 1,300 people, including government officials and their families. The program was launched by the Ministry of Housing and Public Works.

Resumption Of Tests

JAPAN TO PROTEST TO U.S. OVER NORTH KOREAN VIOLENT ACTS

TOKYO, July 25—The Japanese Foreign Minister, Mr. Akira Shigemitsu, indicated Japan's opposition to the North Korean violent acts. He said that Japan would not accept any action that would disturb regional peace.

The Western Disarmament Proposal

The Western Disarmament Proposal, which aims to achieve disarmament, is expected to be ratified by the United States and the Soviet Union in the near future. The proposal has been welcomed by many countries, including the United Kingdom and France.

AKIRA SHIGEMITSU

Akira Shigemitsu, Japan's Foreign Minister, arrived in Kabul yesterday for a two-day visit. He is expected to meet with President Marshal Shahnobad and discuss various bilateral issues.

The Shah of Iran, who is currently visiting Tokyo, will attend a concert in Kabul on July 29 to celebrate the 20th anniversary of his accession to the throne.

Shah's Visit to Afghanistan

The Shah of Iran, who is currently visiting Tokyo, will arrive in Kabul on July 29 to celebrate the 20th anniversary of his accession to the throne.

Move With The Times

Read

KABUL TIMES

KABUL TIMES

KABUL, Thursday, July 25, 1963 (AGAD 4, 1963 S.R.)

May Your Heart Be eas

To all our readers:

This edition of the KABUL TIMES is dedicated to all our readers, especially those who have contributed to its success. We are grateful for your support and look forward to continuing to serve you with informative and relevant content.
Pakistani students are protesting against India's nuclear tests. The Pakistani government has been criticized for its response to the crisis. The situation is tense and there is a risk of escalation.

The Shahinshah of Iran was assassinated today. The Shahinshah had been in power for over 30 years and had faced numerous political challenges. His death has sparked widespread reactions and has raised questions about the future of Iran.

British protests in response to the Indian nuclear test were met with a strong response from the Indian government. The protests have been condemned as irresponsible and have been described as an attempt to undermine India's sovereignty.

No new military action was proposed in the meeting. The government is currently focusing on diplomatic efforts to resolve the crisis.

The talent show was well-received and has increased the engagement of the audience. The performers showcased their skills and entertained the audience.

Emphasis on closer ties among neighboring countries is evident in the recent diplomatic activities. The meeting between the Shahinshah of Iran and the President of Pakistan was a step towards strengthening the bilateral relationship.

A British delegation visited Pakistan to discuss various issues and explore opportunities for cooperation. The visit was seen as a positive development in the relationship between the two nations.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan held a meeting to discuss regional security and cooperation. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.

British influence in the Middle East persists, with various diplomatic initiatives being undertaken to address regional issues. The British government's role in promoting peace and stability in the region continues to be highlighted.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan shared their insights and experiences on the meeting. They discussed the importance of mutual understanding and cooperation in the region.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan met with President Pompidou and Prime Minister Callaghan to discuss regional issues. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan met with President Pompidou and Prime Minister Callaghan to discuss regional issues. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan met with President Pompidou and Prime Minister Callaghan to discuss regional issues. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan met with President Pompidou and Prime Minister Callaghan to discuss regional issues. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan met with President Pompidou and Prime Minister Callaghan to discuss regional issues. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan met with President Pompidou and Prime Minister Callaghan to discuss regional issues. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan met with President Pompidou and Prime Minister Callaghan to discuss regional issues. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.

The Shahinshah of Iran and his Majesty the King of Jordan met with President Pompidou and Prime Minister Callaghan to discuss regional issues. The meeting was described as a significant step towards regional stability.