A Year of Useful Events For Cause Of Pakistan

BY M. NABZADA

Last year, although it was not an ordinary year in Pakistan, yet there were some events of considerable importance. The most striking were those which took place after the first year of martial law. There were also some other significant events.

In the field of politics, the most important was the announcement of the elections. The elections were supposed to be held in the middle of the year, but the military rulers did not want to hold them.

In the field of economics, the most important was the announcement of the nationalization of the banking system. This was done to combat the influence of capitalism.

In the field of education, the most important was the announcement of the establishment of a new university in the North-West Frontier Province. This was done to provide better education to the people of the province.

In the field of culture, the most important was the announcement of the establishment of a new national music festival. This was done to promote the national music.

The most important events of the year were those which took place in the field of national defense. The most important of these was the announcement of the establishment of a new national defense force. This was done to strengthen the national defense.

"were moving towards their freedom and we are sure that they will attain their sacred national goal."

The Mayor then hosted the flag raising ceremony in the Pakhtunistan Square. The crowd there proceeded towards the Ghazi Stadium where the remaining part of the day’s ceremonies were held. These included the recitation of Pakhtuni and Persian poems, national dances and aerobics performances.

In the afternoon there will be a football match between Shahzadi Khan and British Loy Shirkat teams. From 9 p.m., the Soviet athletes will give an open air performance. The Shershah will be open tonight and there will be a display of fireworks.

Radio Kabul has a special programme and the Pakhtunistan Academy has sponsored a poetry contest which will be broadcast. Newpapers throughout the country have brought out special issues on the occasion.

Inside Pakhtunistan

that one area or region becomes the centre of every and all attention is paid to the events there. The Government of Pakhtunistan for more than one year followed the people of Bajawar with its latest weapons including jet planes. The people of this area have been able to preserve their freedom so far though tension still prevails there.

Q: Is it true that in Bajawar people are faithful to Pakhtunistan?

Real Story

A: You are asking this question on the basis of Pakhtuni propaganda about which I have already mentioned. Any one who has watched Pakhtuni jet planes bombarding the villages and communities of Bajawar and sees the rugged area would tell the real story of Bajawar.

Q: What about the affairs in Pakhtunistan?

A: The situation there is that the political parties have been banned, political leaders, literary figures, intellectuals, educated people and leaders and thousands of others have been put in Pakhtunistan prisons for the last two years, some for the fifth or sixth time. Their properties have been confiscated and many of them are now ill in the prison cells.

Q: But the Government of Pakhtunistan says that only a few hundred people have been imprisoned. What do you say to that?

A: Even under normal conditions the Pakhtunistan jails used to have hundreds of people. This was true even at the time of British colonialism in this part of the world. But when conditions became abnormal and there are allegations by the nationalists the number increases to thousands.

In Occupied Pakhtunistan during mass imprisonment the number of those detained was always in thousands. Recently Mr. Mahmood Ali Qureshi (Regional Secretary-General of the National Awami Party and President of the All-Pakistan Br. Association) also confirmed that the jails were full of Pakhtunistan nationals and their number was in four figures.

You can rarely find a house in this area from which one or two people are not there and it is for this reason that the Pakhtunistan Government had prohibited foreign journalists from contacting the public.

Our struggle is for a big and vital goal. It is a struggle for the right of self-determination which has been supported by the United Nations Charter and it is our hope that help from all peace and justice-loving quarters of the world will come to us for the attainment of this goal. It is our decision to continue our struggle no matter what it may cost us.

Welensky Blames "Dismal Jimmies"

SALISBURY, Aug. 31.—Sir Roy Welensky, Federal Rhodesian Prime Minister yesterday challenged reports that the Federation was "doomed", and that Mr. R. A. Butler, Britain Minister for Central African Affairs, had "decided against us". The Federation is intact and strong, Sir Roy declared at the opening of the Royal Salisbury Show, and blamed "dismal Jimmies" and the "quidible" for thinking otherwise.

Japan Takes 14 Of 17 Gold Medals

At Asian Games

JAKARTA, Aug. 30, (Reuters):—Japan continued to sweep all before her at the Asian Games yesterday when 14 of the 17 gold medals at stake.

Young Japanese swimming stars, brought here for international experience while senior members of the national team tour the United States, took seven of the gold medals available.

Track and field athletes added four more gold medals, and also four silver and two bronze awards.

The biggest upset of the games to date came when the Japanese men's tennis team, took first place in the team championship, beating the Philippines in the final. Japanese girls won their final two matches against Indonesia without trouble.

On the shooting range outside Jakarta, the Japanese supremacy continued as their riflemen won the gold medal for the small bore rifle three positions event.
