De Gaulle’s Plan To Change Constitution

Common Front Of All Republicans Urged

VICHY, (Central France), Sept. 30, (Reuters) — M. Gaston Monnerville, Vichy’s left-wing Socialist senator, yesterday called for a common front of all Republican leaders to press for amendments to the Constitution that would bring about a change in the system of government.

Hostility to the presidential plan, he said, comes from a referendum—on changing the system of election—scheduled for January. If it is defeated, President de Gaulle has promised to resign.

The Socialists, who have been the main opposition to de Gaulle’s policies, have scored a notable victory in the French elections.

Castro Explains Cuba’s Economic Goals

Havana, Sept. 30, (Reuters) — Dr. Fidel Castro, the Cuban Premier, has warned the “imperialists” not to underestimate the Socialist China’s economic success.

Dr. Castro spoke to cheering crowds by Friday night in the Fidel Castro’s last public appearance marking the second anniversary of the Committee for the Defence of the Revolution.

The Premier said that economically, Cuba had crossed and was leaving behind the most difficult stage.

He stressed that the revolution did not mean an increase in “luxury, an increase in unnecessary things.” The future would not mean more cars, more television sets or more building machinery. He added.

Yemeni Tribes And Sheikhs Support New Government

Aden, Sept 30, (Reuters) — Most of the tribes and sheikhs in the Yemen have proclaimed their support for the new Republican Government set up after a Revolutionary Council seized power three days ago, according to reports reaching here yesterday.

Yemen’s Sana Radio said yesterday that the Soviet Union had recognized the new Government.

The Revolutionary Council has denied reports of a government of the “imperialist royal family” rallying and marching on the capital to create another revolution. The Council appealed to the people in the “difficult and unstable” of the Aden Trades Union Congress following the Aden coup.

According to the Aden Times, the Aden Government of the Aden Times, the Aden Government of the Aden Times.

New Ministers

There are several new ministers holding portfolios previously held by ministers of the previous Cabinet, according to the President, the 12-member body which will wield power, held by President Nasir.

The President Council was sworn in yesterday, and at its first meeting was expected to end the membership of the Executive Council. The President Council comprises President Nasir, his five former Vice-Presidents and six other ministers including Wing Commander Sabry.

Yesterday’s decree makes no mention of a Minister of Information, but it is reliably understood that the President would take the post in addition to his duties of Minister of Culture and National Guidance.

The decree also named a 28-member Defence Council, headed by President Nasir and comprising all 15 who are either on the President’s Executive Council and four other members—General Ali Amr, Chief of Staff of the Armed Forces, General Mahmoud Sidiqy, Commander of the Air Force Admiral Salim and Navy Commander and Salim Mo-
