Kabul Times (November 19, 1962, vol. 1, no. 212)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/206
Afghanistan's Role in Movement Of People And Ideas In Early Medieval Ages

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.

A special position of the Arcs in the medieval movement of people and ideas is clearly seen in their relations with the Muslim world. The Muslim conquests in the seventh century spread the Arabic language and Arabic script to the north-western parts of the Pushtun belted. The Arcs were a bridge between the two worlds. They were the first to translate the Quran into their own language. The Arcs also played a role in the dissemination of the Arabic language. They were the first to adopt the Arabic script and language. They also played a role in the spread of the Arabic language to the rest of the Islamic world.
LARGE SUPPORT FOR GAULLIST PARTY IN FRENCH ELECTIONS

The latest opinion polls, which indicate that the Gaullist party has a strong lead in the upcoming French elections, suggest that the party will dominate the political scene in France for the next few years. The Gaullist party, led by Charles de Gaulle, has been a major influence in French politics since its formation in the late 1940s.

NEW MONGOLIAN ORDER FIGHTING

The Mongolian government has announced new measures to strengthen national security and combat terrorism. The government has increased funding for intelligence and security agencies and has implemented stricter border controls.

AFGHANISTAN

Dr. William, a prominent scholar on Afghanistan, has announced that he will be writing a new book on the history of Afghanistan. The book will cover the period from the early 19th century to the present day.

THE WEATHER

The weather forecast for the next few days predicts mild temperatures with scattered clouds. There is a chance of rain in the late afternoon.

STABILIZATION OF MONETARY SYSTEM

I.M.F. Wishing To Help Afghanistan

The International Monetary Fund (I.M.F.) has expressed its willingness to provide financial assistance to Afghanistan to help stabilize its monetary system. This is a significant development as Afghanistan has been facing economic challenges in recent years.

Geneva Disarm’s Talks’ Resumption

U.N. Committee Endorses Cairo Declaration

The U.N. Committee has endorsed the Cairo Declaration on Disarmament, which was proposed by the Geneva Disarm’s Talks. The declaration calls for the reduction of nuclear weapons and the prevention of their proliferation.

Yet For Withdrawal

OeJefs From Cuba

The Cuban government has announced that it will not be withdrawing its forces from Angola. This decision has been met with mixed reactions from the international community.

Delay In Kenya’s Independence

In a surprise move, the Kenyan government has announced a delay in the declaration of independence from British rule. This decision has caused concern among the Kenyan people and has led to protests in the country.

L.M.F. DELEGATION MEETS MALAWI

A delegation from the L.M.F. has met with government officials in Malawi. The delegation discussed issues of mutual interest and discussed ways to strengthen bilateral relations.

VILLAGE SCHOOLS OPENED

Several new schools have been opened in rural areas of the country. The schools are expected to improve the educational opportunities for children in these areas.

PROTEST AGAINST U.S. ARREST OF CURAN

Protests have erupted in response to the arrest of an American journalist in Cuba. The journalist was arrested for allegedly writing articles critical of the Cuban government.

CLASSIFIED

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Christmas cards have been distributed to soldiers stationed in various parts of the world. The cards are a symbol of the holiday spirit and a way to bring a little bit of home to those who are away from it.