AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION

The emphasis laid by the Ministry of Agriculture on agricultural extension work is producing results. The work has been given a new impetus by the new Agricultural Year Plan, as was done in the past three years. But some important issues have been suffered during the last period. After the Plan was adopted, the Ministry of Agriculture started a campaign to promote extension work. But the difficulties faced by the Ministry of Agriculture in the extension work are not yet overcome. The Ministry of Agriculture is facing with the challenging task of increasing the number of farmers who have been trained in agricultural extension work.

Laotian Parties Agree On Unifying Army

A Laotian government agreement on a plan to unify the country's military forces was reached recently in the National Assembly. A similar agreement was reached in the past two months, but the two agreements were not completely identical. The main points of the agreement are:

- The Ministry of National Defense will be responsible for the unification of the army.
- The army will be divided into three main forces:
  1. The army will be divided into three main forces:
  2. The army will be divided into three main forces:
  3. The army will be divided into three main forces:

Blind Man A Good Hold-Up CASE

In a town in the United States, a blind man was attacked by a group of men who were on a hold-up. The man defended himself by using his walking stick to fight off the attackers. The police came and arrested the attackers. The man was later discharged from the hospital. The case was filed in court and the attackers were found guilty of attempted robbery.

Angolan Freedom Fight And The World's Obligation

The Angola freedom struggle is gaining momentum. Angolans are fighting for their independence and are supported by many countries around the world. The United Nations has passed a resolution calling for an end to the war in Angola. The Angolan government has been condemned by the international community for its human rights abuses.

Habibia: The Oldest School In Afghanistan

Until the 1969 regulations were introduced in the country, the only teaching was done in English, French, and Russian. In 1969, the Habibia School was established, which became the first school to teach in English, French, and Russian. The school was founded by a group of British and French expatriates who had a deep love for Afghan culture and history. The school has since become an important institution in the country, providing education to the next generation of Afghan leaders.

TAXI RATES FROM PAMIR CINEMA

To prevent taxi drivers from overcharging, the city council has introduced a new taxi fare system. The new system includes a flat rate of 50 Afghanis per kilometer, which applies to all types of taxis. The following are the rate breakdowns for different types of taxis:

- Minicabs: 50 Afghanis per kilometer
- Sedans: 70 Afghanis per kilometer
- Minibuses: 90 Afghanis per kilometer
- Minibuses with AC: 100 Afghanis per kilometer

The new system is expected to reduce the number of complaints from passengers and improve the overall service quality.
KANDAHAR-SPINBOLDAK Highway Opened
PREMIER DAoudkai U.S. GOVERNMENT

KANDAHAR, Dec. 2—The Prime Minister, Premier Daoudkai, opened the Kandahar–Spinboldak Highway between the city of Kandahar, on the border with Afghanistan, and Spinboldak, on the border with the Soviet Union.

The Prime Minister, in his speech, referred to the development of the national infrastructure and the progress made in the construction of highways.

He also noted the importance of this highway in facilitating trade and communication between Afghanistan and the Soviet Union.

The Kandahar-Spinboldak Highway is part of the regional transport network in western Afghanistan. The road is vital for commercial and diplomatic activities between Afghanistan and the Soviet Union.

On his arrival in Kandahar, the Prime Minister was greeted by the Governor and the Commander of the Military Command of Kandahar.

The Premier Minister after his arrival inspected the new highway and hoped it would benefit the Afghan people.
