Coup By Senegalese Premier Avowed; Dia To Be Prosecuted

KABUL TIMES
DECEMBER 14, 1965

In Brief

U.S. Reported Making Offers To Yugoslav Leader

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—The U.S. government has made offers to Yugoslav leader Marshal Tito, officials said here today.

The offers were aimed at making Tito’s government more friendly to the West, officials said.

Tito, who has been trying to establish closer relations with Western nations, has been sending negotiators to the United States.

In recent months, Tito has visited several Western countries and has been working on establishing closer relations with the West.

The offers were made to try to make Tito’s government more friendly to the West.

JURGENS

KABUL TIMES
DECEMBER 14, 1965

In Brief

UNAdopts Resolution OfPermanent Sovereignty Of Nations On Natural Resources

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (AP)—The United Nations General Assembly has adopted a resolution on permanent sovereignty of nations over their natural resources.

The draft resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.

The resolution states that nations have the right to permanent sovereignty over their natural resources and that no nation can be deprived of this right.

The resolution also calls for international cooperation in the development and use of these resources.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 104 to 15, with 8 abstentions.
The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.

The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.

The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.

The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.

The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.

The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.

The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.

The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.

The Argument in the West

Some very important and not very controversial points were raised in the European, American, and British press last week. Great progress has been made in connection with the situation in Europe, which is expected to be a sequel to the political situation there. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world. The British, American and French governments have taken very active steps to prevent any further improvement of the situation in the western world.