ARYA TIMES

KABUL TIMES
AFGHANISTAN'S HISTORY AT A GLANCE

AFGHANISTAN was founded by the Aryans, who came from Europe. The term "Aryans" means the people who were the first to civilize the Middle East. They spread across Asia and Europe, reaching as far as the Middle East. The Aryans believed in the importance of family, and they had a strong sense of community. They also valued education and culture, which they passed on to future generations.

The Aryans were known for their warrior class, the Kshatriyas. They fought against the Parthians and the Sassanids, and they created a strong military. The Aryans also developed a system of government, which included a king and a council of elders. They also had a strong religious influence, with the Brahmans as the priests.

The Aryans had a strong impact on the culture and economy of the region. They introduced new technologies, such as the wheel and the plow, which helped to increase agricultural productivity. They also developed a system of writing, which allowed for the recording of history and literature.
