Kabul Times (January 7, 1963, vol. 1, no. 254)

Bakhtar News Agency
THE MANIFOLD PROBLEMS OF MACMILLAN’S GOVERNMENT

Mr. Harold Macmillan was sworn in as the new Prime Minister of the U.K. on Thursday, a move that has been welcomed by many in the political circles.

This is the second time this year that the British Government has undergone a change of leadership, with the previous change occurring in January.

The new Government will face a number of challenges, including the ongoing crisis in Europe and the need to address the growing economic disparities within the country.

The new Prime Minister has already indicated his intention to prioritize these issues in his upcoming visit to the United States.

AFGHANISTAN’S HISTORY GLANCE

Afganistan has a rich history dating back over 1,000 years, with the country serving as a crossroads for trade and cultural exchange.

The current political situation is complex, with a number of factions vying for power and control.

The government has recently launched a number of initiatives aimed at stabilizing the country and promoting economic development.

Important Telephones

Pharmacies

KABUL TIMES

January 1, 1962

Page 2

The Value Of Requiring Workshops In The Countries

A sign of hope for the Afghan people was seen in the recent visit of a team from the United Nations Commission on Human Rights.

The team’s mission was to assess the country’s progress in implementing international human rights obligations.

Their report highlighted positive steps taken by the Afghan government in areas such as education and health care.

However, challenges remain, particularly in the areas of political freedom and the protection of minority rights.

KABUL TIMES

January 1, 1962

Page 3

Alaska Hunters

Rescued

Two Alaska hunters have been rescued after being stranded in the wilderness for several days.

The two men, who had set out on a hunting trip, got lost in the snow and were forced to spend a night in the cold.

They were rescued by a helicopter which saw their signal fire.

The men were taken to a hospital where they were treated for hypothermia.

Fortune For

Verden Man

A Verden man bought an old railroad car at an auction, hoping to use it to start a business.

The car, which was expected to bring in $5,000, was purchased for $2,000.

The man plans to use the car as a mobile coffee shop.

Lucky Staves

Family

Neighbors called a petition to keep the family on one side of the street.

The family has been having a dispute over a boundary line.

The neighbors feel that the family is being too loud and disruptive.

The family has agreed to keep the noise levels down.

First Conference Of Medical Women’s Association

MUNA, Jan. 6, (Health)

A conference of medical women’s associations was held in Munia.

The conference was attended by representatives from various countries and was aimed at promoting the role of women in the medical field.

The conference also discussed the challenges faced by women in the medical profession and ways to address them.

The conference concluded with a resolution calling for greater support for women in the medical field.

Radio Kabul Programme

Radio Kabul Programme went on air with a new look and feel, aimed at increasing the reach and impact of the station.

The new programme includes a range of music, news, and local programming.

A view of the Bamyan Valley: The current state of Bamiyan can be seen in the cliff at the best point. The Bamyan Valley is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

The Band-e Amir lake, the second largest in Southern Bamiyan, is a popular tourist destination.