1-22-1963

Kabul Times (January 22, 1963, vol. 1, no. 267)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/265

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Digitized Newspaper Archives at DigitalCommons@UNO. It has been accepted for inclusion in Kabul Times by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UNO. For more information, please contact unodigitalcommons@unomaha.edu.
NEW YORK DISARM TALKS POSTPONED

U.S. TROOPS ENTER KOLWEZI TODAY

ELISABETHVILLE, Zaire (AP)—U.S. troops are expected to enter the capital of the Democratic Republic of the Congo today to support government forces in their battle against the rebel forces of the National Army of the Democratic Republic of the Congo. The United Nations Security Council authorized the deployment of peacekeepers to the region following a disarmament agreement between the government and the rebels.

The U.S. intervention is seen as a significant step towards stabilizing the region, which has been plagued by conflict for decades. The United States is providing military support to help the government forces repel the rebel forces and ensure peace and stability in the area.

Kennedy ‘Encouraged’ At Khruushchev’s Letter

(Cold War note) - President Kennedy has received a letter from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, expressing optimism about the possibility of ending the Cold War. The two leaders have been correspond ing on the issue, and Kennedy has indicated that he is encouraged by the prospects of a peaceful resolution.

Move With The Times

The new edition of The Times is out now, offering you the latest news and insights. Join us and stay informed.

THE WEATHER

FRANCE MUST BE A PARTY TO TREATY BAN;
PACT, SAYS GROMYKO

Says France must immediately sign

Home News

FRANCE MUST BE A PARTY TO TREATY BAN;
PACT, SAYS GROMYKO

Sign Of Progress

Says MacMillan

Home News

THE BRAZILIAN government has agreed to sign the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, a significant step towards nuclear disarmament. This agreement is welcomed by the United Nations, which has long been calling for a global nuclear freeze.

Momand Tribe To Fight Aggression

To The Last

Momand Tribe, a nomadic group in Afghanistan, has pledged to fight to the last against foreign aggression. This commitment is seen as a symbol of the resilience and determination of the Afghan people.

Better Cotton and Beet-Root Production

The United States has announced an increase in cotton and beet-root production, responding to the growing demand for these crops. The agricultural sector is crucial for the economy and this increase is expected to boost both production and exports.

FRANCE MUST BE A PARTY TO TREATY BAN; PACT, SAYS GROMYKO

Sign Of Progress

Says MacMillan

Home News

THE BRAZILIAN government has agreed to sign the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, a significant step towards nuclear disarmament. This agreement is welcomed by the United Nations, which has long been calling for a global nuclear freeze.

Momand Tribe To Fight Aggression

To The Last

Momand Tribe, a nomadic group in Afghanistan, has pledged to fight to the last against foreign aggression. This commitment is seen as a symbol of the resilience and determination of the Afghan people.

Better Cotton and Beet-Root Production

The United States has announced an increase in cotton and beet-root production, responding to the growing demand for these crops. The agricultural sector is crucial for the economy and this increase is expected to boost both production and exports.
Recovery Of Lost Children

Franco-German Accord On Close Co-Operation In Foreign Policy & Defence

PARIS, Jan. 22, (AP)—The West German chancellor, Dr. Ludwig Erhard, and the French premier, Mr. Jean Monnet, yesterday signed a treaty of close cooperation in foreign policy and defence.

The treaty, which went into effect immediately, will enable the two countries to act as a single political and military force.

In addition, the two countries have agreed to cooperate in the field of economic development.

Setback In ECM Talks

Macmillan's Comment

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 22, (Press Association)—The British Prime Minister, Sir Maurit McMillan, today said that the British Government was determined to achieve a settlement in the case of the Common Market.

He said that the British Government was determined to achieve a settlement in the case of the Common Market.

Heavy Trucks To Be Imported

WAREN, Jan. 25, (AP)—The U.S. government has decided to import heavy trucks from the United States. Mr. Harold Stassen, the U.S. secretary of commerce, has ordered the importation of heavy trucks.

In addition, the U.S. government has also decided to import heavy trucks from the United States.

Polaris Missiles For NATO Bases

In Turkey Likely

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25, (AP)—The U.S. government has decided to import Polaris missiles for NATO bases in Turkey. Mr. Frank Knox, the U.S. secretary of defense, has ordered the importation of Polaris missiles.

The move is expected to be welcomed by the British and French governments, who have been seeking to strengthen their military ties with the United States.

End of Franco-German Hostility CO-OPERATION TREATY SIGNED

PARKS, Jan. 22, (AP)—The Franco-German treaty of co-operation signed yesterday is the first of its kind in Europe.

The agreement provides for a joint Franco-German military force to be created.

French Nuclear Force To Be Ready By Year End

PARIS, Jan. 22, (AP)—The French government announced today that the French nuclear force would be ready by the end of the year.

The announcement was made at a press conference held by Mr. Marcel Pagnol, the French minister of defense.

Freedom Of Movement For U.N. Troops In Katanga

The U.S. has announced that U.N. troops will have freedom of movement in Katanga.

This move is expected to be welcomed by the British and French governments, who have been seeking to strengthen their military ties with the United States.

Increased exchanges of policy officials will be arranged to facilitate this.