3-14-1963

Kabul Times (March 14, 1963, vol. 2, no. 14)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/308
Indonesian Arguments

Construction Of 2nd Part Of Bagram Airport: Agreement Signed With USSR

Sardar Naimi, the president of Afghanistan, has signed an agreement with the USSR for the construction of the second part of Bagram Airport. The agreement was signed in Moscow by Naimi and a USSR official. The construction of the second part of Bagram Airport is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Pazhwak Elected Chairman of Human Rights Commission

The new chairman of the Human Rights Commission has been elected. The commission is responsible for protecting the human rights of citizens in Afghanistan. The new chairman is an experienced lawyer who has previously worked for human rights organizations.

Floods From Melting Snow Cause Emergency In Hungary

Emergency measures have been taken in Hungary to address the flood situation caused by melting snow. The government has mobilized resources to help affected areas.

How Advance In American Apollo Project For Moon

The American Apollo project for landing on the moon is making progress. The project is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Resumption Of Efforts For British Entry Into ECM Three Countries Set Committee

A committee has been established to resume efforts for British entry into the ECM. The committee consists of representatives from three countries.

Dr. Youssuf Presents His Cabinet To His Majesty

His Majesty's Hope For Success Of New Government

The new cabinet presented to the king has been approved by the king. The king expressed his hope for the success of the new government.
The Weather

Yester-Day:

Max at 99° F, Min at 74° F, Rain at 1 a.m., 4 p.m., 7 a.m.

Today:

Max at 99° F, Min at 66° F, Rain at 10 a.m.

Tomorrow's Outlook:

Max at 95° F, Min at 66° F, Rain at 10 a.m.

Dr. Yousuf Outlines His Government’s Policy

Basic Reforms To Implement Democratic Principles

Sardar Daoud

Wishes Success To New Cabinet

Adherence To Neutrality Reaffirmed

KABUL, Mar. 16.—In a policy statement broadcast over Radio Kabul on Thursday night the new Prime Minister Dr. Mohammad Yousuf stated that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will remain true to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime and will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Basic reforms with a view to implementing democratic principles have been announced by the new Finance Minister Mr. Lal Bahadur Shastri.

Mr. Lal Bahadur Shastri, who has been appointed Finance Minister, said that the new Government was determined to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

Basic reforms have been announced by the new Finance Minister Mr. Lal Bahadur Shastri.

Mr. Lal Bahadur Shastri, who has been appointed Finance Minister, said that the new Government was determined to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will remain true to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime and will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will remain true to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime and will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will remain true to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime and will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will remain true to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime and will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will remain true to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime and will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.

Referring to the recent developments in Afghanistan, Dr. Yousuf said that the present and highest duty of the Government was to implement the country's independence, territorial integrity, national rights and legitimate interests.

The new Government will not have any dealings with the Communist regime of the Soviet Union or the British government.

Press accounts here state that Dr. Yousuf said his Government was determined to adhere to the policy of neutrality observed by the previous regime.