THE OPPORTUNE "LULL"

From a journalistic point of view, it is always refreshing to hear the 1963 news-vacuum announcements-it may justly be termed a "lull" in the headlines.

But this "lull" is not always welcome-for news always wants for words, and the "lull" is often a time when the news is least expected.

It is right to say that there are many in the international community who are looking forward to a "lull" in the headlines, and that this "lull" is welcome to them.

The "lull" in the headlines is a temporary one, and it is not to be expected that it will last for any length of time.

ARGENTINA MINISTER RESIGNS

The resignation of the Argentine Minister for Foreign Affairs, Mr. Carlos Nicoli, is a sign of the growing strain within the government of President Juan Peron. Mr. Nicoli has been a close associate of Mr. Peron since the inception of his government in 1943. His resignation comes at a time when the government is facing increasing pressure from the opposition parties and the military.

THE QUANTITY OF "MIND"

"MIND" is a quarterly magazine that has been publishing since 1932. It is known for its emphasis on the importance of a free press and the need for a democratic society.
