Tokyo Conference On Peaceful Uses Of Atom PROGRAME AT A GLANCE

BRIEF ACCOUNT OF THE COMMUNIQUE

The need for the provision of international safeguards for the peaceful uses of atomic energy has been emphasized. The conference has given a number of important decisions, which will have a profound influence on the development of peaceful uses of atomic energy. The meeting was attended by representatives from 22 countries, including the United States, the United Kingdom, France, and the Soviet Union. The conference will continue until May 10.

Shyam Prasad, Managing Director of the United Nations International Atomic Energy Agency, gave a press conference on the first day of the meeting. He said that the conference would be held in two sessions, the first on May 9 and the second on May 10.

The conference adopted a resolution in the name of the United Nations, which was signed by the representatives of all the countries present. The resolution expresses the following:

1. That the conference has been convened in the name of the United Nations;
2. That the participating countries have agreed to cooperate in the peaceful uses of atomic energy;
3. That the conference will be held in two sessions, the first on May 9 and the second on May 10.

Jordan Bound To Live In Framwork Of Arab Unity, Says New Premier

AMMAN, Jordan, March 30—Jordan's new Premier, Prince Abdullah II, Monday declared that his country would live in a framework of Arab unity.

The King's extended family is not to live in the framework of Arab unity.

Premier Abdullah, in his first television appearance as Premier, said that the principles that he would pursue as Premier were laid down by King Hussein in the speech he has made on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan.

He said that the principles would be followed by the government.

The King's words were: "We are united with the Arab world." He said that the principles would be followed by the government.
