US To Take Action Should Cuba Ship Arms To Haiti

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—A U.S. Government spokesman declared yesterday that if Cuba ships arms to Haiti, the United States would take steps to counter the move. He said that this was the decision of the United States, which has already expressed this to Cuba.

Other statements said U.S. forces in Cuba would be prepared to take any action necessary to prevent the shipment.

While there have been reports that the United States has already made representations to Cuba, there have been no reports of any action taken.

The Cuban Mission to the United Nations in New York yesterday said that it was not aware of any such representations.

Mr. White said that he had no information on the issue and could not confirm or deny any reports.

The Cuban Mission also said that it had received no representation from the United States about the shipment.

The United States has a policy of trying to prevent the shipment of weapons to the Dominican Republic.
