USSR REJECTS US CALL TO BAN FISSILABLE MATERIAL PRODUCTION

US Reserves Enormous, Charge Soviets

GENEVA, June 6 (AP) — Rare and nasty argument was the keynote of the third session of the special conference when the delegates jousted in behalf of the alternative positions put forward at the close of the second session.

After Canadian, British and Soviet delegates had put their views before the whole assembly, the Soviet delegation began.
THE HUNGRY ONES

by PAKISTAN

The World Food Conference was held in Rome last month and was an important event during the current year. It is sometimes very difficult for people to visualize the magnitude of the problem of hunger and understandings the United Nations in the face of this challenge. The basic problem is that it is impossible to realize the size of the problem. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are hungry. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to die from hunger. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to suffer from malnutrition. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to live in perpetual poverty. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to work. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to participate in the development of their own countries. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to make a living. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to have a future. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to have a say in their own lives.

It is also impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to have access to education. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to have access to health care. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to have access to clean water. It is impossible to see the numbers of people who are going to be unable to have access to basic necessities.

A large part of the problem of hunger is that it is impossible to see the people who are hungry. It is impossible to see the people who are going to die from hunger. It is impossible to see the people who are suffering from malnutrition. It is impossible to see the people who are going to live in perpetual poverty. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to work. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to participate in the development of their own countries. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to make a living. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have a future. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have a say in their own lives.

It is also impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to education. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to health care. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to clean water. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to basic necessities.

Another large part of the problem of hunger is that it is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to food. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to land. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to water. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to energy. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to education. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to health care. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to clean water. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to basic necessities.

Finally, it is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to the Internet. It is impossible to see the people who are going to be unable to have access to social media.
