U.S.S.R. Declares Australian Embassy Official Non-Grata

MOSCOW, June 11.—(Reuters)—The U.S.S.R. has declared the First Secretary of the Australian Embassy in Moscow, Mr. Morrison, persona non grata because of espionage activities, the Soviet News Agency Tass said on Monday.

Quoting a Soviet Foreign Ministry announcement, Tass said Mr. Morrison, who had been in Moscow for several years, had been engaged in the collection of intelligence for a long time. At the same time, he had been engaged in the collection of intelligence for a long time and had also been engaged in the collection of foreign fashion clothing for purposes of speculation.

The U.S.S.R. also said Mr. Morrison had been engaged in the collection of information on behalf of the Australian and Soviet intelligence services.

ON SPEED OF POLITICAL CHANGE

THE LANGUAGE PRESS

AT A GLANCE

Perhaps it will be said that the change is expected and in fact has occurred in the past, and that it was the result of a long process of change. This is true to a certain extent. However, the speed with which the change has occurred, and the speed with which it is expected to continue, is much greater than anything that has occurred in the past. In fact, it is unprecedented.

The change is not only a change of words, but also a change of ideas and attitudes. It is not only a change in the language, but also a change in the culture.

In question as to the speed of the change, it is important to bear in mind that the change is not only a change in the language, but also a change in the culture. The change is not only a change in the language, but also a change in the culture. The change is not only a change in the language, but also a change in the culture.

Indonesia, Philippines And Malaya Agree To Join A Confederation

ABANDONMENT of the idea of a political collaboration among Indonesia, the Philippines and Malaya to form a confederation of nations in Southeast Asia was announced yesterday by the three governments.

The announcement was made yesterday evening at a joint press conference held at the Foreign Ministry here.

A delegation of officials of the three governments met here yesterday evening to discuss the possibility of forming a confederation of nations in Southeast Asia.

The six points of the proposed confederation are:

1. The three governments will work together to promote peace and stability in the region.
2. They will cooperate in the development of the region.
3. They will promote intercultural understanding and cooperation.
4. They will work towards the abolition of all forms of discrimination.
5. They will support the rights of all peoples to self-determination.
6. They will work towards the establishment of a just and equitable international order.

The three governments also agreed to hold regular meetings to discuss the implementation of the above points.

The announcement was made by the Indonesian Foreign Minister, Mr. Soekarno, the Philippines Foreign Minister, Mr. Lapu-Lapu, and the Malayan Foreign Minister, Mr. Tunku Abdul Rahman.

The announcement was welcomed by the United Nations and the United States, which have been closely following the developments in Southeast Asia.

The United Nations Secretary-General, Mr. U Thant, said in a statement that the announcement was a significant step towards the realization of a united and prosperous Southeast Asia.

The United States Secretary of State, Mr. Cyrus Vance, said in a statement that the United States supported the idea of a confederation of nations in Southeast Asia and was ready to work with the three governments to make it a reality.

The announcement was also welcomed by the ASEAN Secretariat, which expressed the hope that the confederation would promote peace and stability in the region.
