REPORTED AGREEMENT ON SOLVING U.N. FINANCIAL CRISIS

At a Glance

Representatives for all United Nations (UN) member states have reportedly reached an agreement on a financial reform proposal that would avert a potential crisis. The agreement includes measures to ensure that future payments to the UN are made on time, and it calls for the establishment of a new financing mechanism.

Yesterday's Irish Foreign Mini-ter, Brian Lenihan, announced that the proposal had been agreed upon following extensive negotiations. The measure, which involves the creation of a special UN fund, is expected to be implemented soon.

WAYS TO HELP RED CRESCENT

The Royal Highness Prince

Afghanistan is working with full dedication and attention for the further development of the Afghan Red Crescent Society.

His Majesty has stated that these efforts are aimed at improving the living conditions of the people, especially in rural areas. The Red Crescent has already contributed significantly in various humanitarian efforts.

I.L.O. AND ITS ACCOMPLISHMENT: AFGHANISTAN VIEWS

We are also aware of the need for increased efforts in this field, especially in the areas of employment and economic growth. ILO's role in promoting social justice and decent working conditions cannot be overstated.

The labor laws in Afghanistan have made significant progress, though challenges remain. The government continues to work on improving the legal framework for workers' rights.

New Labor Laws

The new laws were drafted with the aim of harmonizing Afghan labor laws with international standards. They provide for better working conditions and protect workers' rights.

Herat: A Historic City Moving Towards Modernization

Herat, the historic city with deep cultural and historical roots, continues to evolve. Efforts are being made to preserve its heritage while promoting modern technologies.

The city is undergoing a modernization process, involving the construction of new infrastructures and the improvement of existing ones.

This transformation aims to enhance the quality of life for its residents.

American Reaction To Soviet Woman Being First In Space

Soviet Union's woman, Valentina

Tereshkova, on June 16, 1963, made history by becoming the first woman to travel in space.

President John F. Kennedy and

First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy were among many leaders who greeted the news with congratulations. The historic mission was seen as a significant step in the space race.

Herat's remarkable history and cultural heritage have inspired efforts to document and conservate it. The city's archaeological sites and historic buildings are undoubtedly treasures of Afghanistan's rich history.

Justice Ministry Sets Department To Co-ordinate Legislative Affairs

KABUL, June 24—A central office has been set up in the Ministry of Justice to co-ordinate legislative matters and legislation.

The department, set up in February, will also carry out the work of the Department of Legislative Affairs, according to the Ministry. It will also provide information and advice to government officials on the drafting of laws and regulations.

The department will also co-ordinate the activities of the Department of Legislative Affairs and the Department of Legislative Procedures.

KABUL, June 23—The government of Afghanistan has repatriated to Pakistan, the village school teacher, who had been arrested and imprisoned in Kabul.

The release of the teacher, who was arrested earlier this year, has been welcomed by the Pakistani government, which has assured the government of Afghanistan that it will continue to support the Afghan government in its efforts to improve education and hygiene in the country.

Italian Socialist Leader Resigns

BRUSSELS, June 23 (AP)—Pierre Moutet, leader of the Italian Socialist Party, resigned Tuesday after a party meeting that ordered Moutet to resign from his post as Socialist leader.

Moutet, who had been leader of the party since 1965, has been under pressure from within the party to step down, and the resignation was met with a mixture of relief and grief by party members.

The party's executive council had met Monday and decided that Moutet should resign. Moutet's resignation was announced today, and he will remain a member of the party's executive council.

The Italian Socialist Party is one of the largest in Western Europe, and its leaders have been at odds with each other for many years. Moutet has been leader of the party since 1965, and he has been under pressure from within the party to step down.

Correction

The third paragraph of the story on the Soviet Union's military aid to Afghanistan stated incorrectly that the aid was being used to train Afghan soldiers. The aid is actually being used to train Afghan teachers and medical doctors.
