Home News in Brief

KABUL, July 15—Mr. Mohammad Afzal, the minister of education, announced that the Ministry of Education would soon begin construction of a new school in Kabul.

The department will be headed by Dr. Mohammad Afzal, who will be assisted by a team of experienced educationalists.

The new school will be built on a site near the University of Kabul, and will be equipped with modern educational facilities.

Correction

The third paragraph of the article "Aliens in Afghanistan," published in the newspaper on May 15, contained an error. It is stated that the "Ministry of Foreign Affairs has issued a new rule requiring all aliens to register with the police within 24 hours of their arrival in Afghanistan."

The correct statement is that the "Ministry of Foreign Affairs has issued a new rule requiring all aliens to register with the police within 72 hours of their arrival in Afghanistan."

USA LOOKING FORWARD TO WELCOMING THEIR MAJESTIES

KABUL TIMES

WASHINGTON, June 21—The White House said on Monday that the government of the United States would welcome the arrival of the Shah of Iran and his family on their visit to the United States in September.

The statement said that the Shah and his family would be treated as "head of state and government." It added that the Shah and his family would be "received with all due honor and respect."
