CUBAN CONFLICTS AMERICAN EMBASSY BUILDING STATE DEPT. ASKS SWITZERLAND TO GET FULL REPORT ON ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Thursday, July 30, (AP) - The U.S. State Department said Wednesday that the Swiss government has agreed to take over the investigation of the attack on the American Embassy in Havana.

The State Department said in a statement that the Swiss government had agreed to investigate the attack, which occurred early Thursday morning.

The attack left several people injured, including a man who died later at a hospital.

The State Department said that the Swiss government would work closely with the U.S. government to determine the cause of the attack.

The incident comes amid growing tensions between the U.S. and Cuba over the ongoing conflict between the two nations.

The State Department said that it would provide all necessary assistance to the Swiss government in its investigation.

The attack on the American Embassy in Havana is the latest in a series of incidents involving the U.S. and Cuba.

In April, an explosion occurred at the U.S. Consulate in Havana, injuring several people.

In May, a man was killed in an attack on the U.S. Embassy in Havana.

The State Department said that it would continue to monitor the situation and provide updates as necessary.

TEXT OF DR. POPAL’S SPEECH BEFORE EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORS

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen,

I am thankful to the Ministry of Education for this great honor and opportunity to speak before you today. I appreciate the efforts of the educational directors in organizing this seminar. As the Minister of Education, I am committed to enhancing the educational standards of our country.

It is my belief that education is the key to a better future for our society. The ultimate goal of education is to develop well-rounded individuals who can contribute positively to their communities and the nation. In order to achieve this, education must be accessible to all, regardless of their social background.

I would like to express my appreciation to the educators who have shown great dedication to the profession. You are our nation’s most precious resource, and we must support you in every possible way.

In conclusion, let us work together to ensure that every child in our country has the opportunity to receive a quality education. By doing so, we can build a better future for Afghanistan.

Thank you, and I look forward to hearing your thoughts and suggestions.
SEVERE EARTHQUAKE HITS SKOPJE
CITY OF YUGOSLAVIA
6000 To 8000 Fear Dead And Injured

KARA: July 7 (Bosnian).—An official of the Yugoslav Ministry of Emergency Situations has said that between 6,000 and 8,000 people are feared to have been killed today when a powerful earthquake hit the city of Skopje, the capital of the Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia.

The official said that the quake, which struck at 2 a.m. local time, was felt throughout the city and caused widespread damage.

The shaking lasted for several minutes, and many buildings collapsed, trapping many people under the rubble.

The official added that the death toll was expected to rise further as rescue efforts continued.

SAHARAN, July 7 (Bosnian).—The Yugoslav Army was deployed in the city of Skopje today to assist in the rescue efforts after the earthquake.

The army was called in to help remove debris from the streets and to provide medical assistance to the injured.

Jirga Urges Release
Of Pakistani Prisoners

KARA, July 7 (Bosnian).—The Jirga of the Pakistani Parliament has called for the immediate release of all Pakistani prisoners held in Kosovo.

The Jirga, which includes members of the Pakistani Parliament, said that the prisoners were being held illegally and that they should be released immediately.

The Jirga also called for the establishment of a commission to investigate the human rights violations that have occurred in Kosovo.

KABUL SCHOOLS CLEared FOR ONE WEEK

KARA, July 7 (Bosnian).—All schools in Kabul have been closed for one week due to the earthquake.

The decision was made by the Ministry of Education in consultation with other government officials.

The ministry said that the schools would reopen on July 15.

SECURITY COUNCIL

KARA, July 7 (Bosnian).—The Security Council of the United Nations has called for an immediate cease-fire in Kosovo.

The council, which includes representatives from all the major powers, said that the government of Kosovo had failed to implement the terms of the Dayton Agreement and that a cease-fire was necessary.

The council also called for the protection of human rights and the establishment of a democratic government in Kosovo.
