SECURITY COUNCIL VOTES TO SAN BAN ARMS SUPPLIES TO SOUTH AFRICA

United Nations, New York, Thursday, August 10. The United Nations Security Council voted today to ban arms supplies to South Africa following a request from the United States and several other countries.

Britain and France abstained, while 12 members of the Security Council voted in favor of the resolution. The resolution was introduced by the United States, supported by Britain, France, and the United States, and opposed by a group of countries including South Africa, the Soviet Union, and China.

The resolution, which passed with a vote of 12 in favor, one against (South Africa), and two abstentions (Britain and France), prohibits the supply of arms, including military equipment, to South Africa. The ban is effective immediately and will be reviewed in six months.

The vote comes amid growing international pressure on South Africa, which has been accused of human rights abuses and racial oppression.

RESULTS OF MANILA SUMMIT CONFERENCE

The Summit Conference between Malaysia and Singapore, chaired by Prime Ministers Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia and Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore, was held in Manila on February 14-15, 1963. The conference was held to discuss issues of mutual interest, including the protection of the Malay peninsula, the integration of the two countries, and the settlement of disputes.

The conference resulted in the signing of several agreements, including the Treaty of Amity and Mutual Assistance, which established a framework for cooperation between the two countries.

The conference also resulted in the establishment of the Straits Settlements, which would become the basis for the present-day Malaysian territories of Johor, Selangor, Perak, Negri Sembilan, and Pahang.

The conference was seen as a major step towards the integration of Singapore and Malaysia, and was widely regarded as a success.

MOMAND AND UMTANKHAIL JIRGA RESOLVES TO DEFEND THEIR LAND AGAINST THREAT

A report from Cheung Chau, China, says that an important and historic meeting was held in Cheung Chau on July 28, 1962. The Jirga, or traditional council, of Cheung Chau met to discuss the threat posed by the Chinese government to the island.

The Jirga, which is traditionally the highest authority in the community, decided to take all possible steps to defend the island against any Chinese aggression. The Jirga also resolved to appeal to the United Nations for assistance and to seek the support of international organizations.

The Chinese government has been increasing its presence in the area, with the construction of new infrastructure and the establishment of military bases. The Jirga's decision is seen as a strong signal of the island's determination to defend its sovereignty.
