KRUSHCHOV AND TITO SUPPORT CO-EXISTENCE Communique On Soviet And Yugoslav Leaders' Talks

NEW YORK, Aug. 28, (Express) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev and President Josip Broz Tito met in New York yesterday for the first time since the conference in Belgrade.

The two leaders, who arrived in the United States today, met this afternoon at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. They talked for about an hour on matters of mutual concern, including the world situation, the Middle East, the United States-Soviet relations, and the possibilities of closer cooperation between the two countries.

Khrushchev and Tito are scheduled to meet again tomorrow afternoon at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. They are expected to discuss further the possibility of a summit meeting between the leaders of the two countries.

Khrushchev is scheduled to depart for Moscow tomorrow afternoon, while Tito will return to Belgrade on Thursday.
