ERHARD TO TAKE OVER AS SHADOW CHANCELLOR IN W. GERMANY MONDAY

BONN, Saturday, Aug. 31, (DPA)—As from Monday next, West Germany’s Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard will perform the duties of a kind of “shadow Chancellor” for the six weeks prior to his taking over the post officially from 87-year-old Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in Palais Schlossberg.

During the two years of his Chancellorship—until a new general election in 1969 Dr. Erhard will have to cope with a task of a magnitude that Dr. Adenauer seldom had to face during his fourteen years as West German Chancellor.

The new Chancellor is also fully aware that during his period of office the fate of the coming generation of Germans may at stake, according to informed sources.

Dr. Erhard, who is currently West-Chanceller as well as Economic Minister, has said that the planned withdrawal of U.S. troops from Vietnam does not necessarily mean a reduction of the multinational forces in Vietnam.

The sources added that the withdrawal of the troops will depend on the UN’s policy in the region and that the UN mission in Vietnam is not terminated.

The sources said that the withdrawal is not imminent, but will depend on the situation in Vietnam.

The situation in Vietnam is so bad, the sources said, that the UN has decided to withdraw some of its forces from the country.
