U.S.S.R. ACCUSES CHINA OF BORDER VIOLATION
Soviet Union Warns China Against Hostile Activities

MOSCOW, Sept. 25, (U.P.A.-

The Soviet Union has charged that China is violating the 1950 border agreement and the China government had no fallback plan. The Soviet government has complained to the United Nations Security Council and has appealed to the United Nations General Assembly for discussion of the situation.

The charges were made at a meeting of the Security Council on Friday, where the Chinese delegation was present. The Soviet delegation accused China of violating the border agreement and warned that the Chinese government would have to accept responsibility for the consequences.

The charges are based on information obtained from Chinese sources who have said that Chinese troops have been crossing the border into Soviet territory.

The Soviet government has also complained to the United Nations General Assembly, where it said it considered the Chinese government to be responsible for the violation of the border agreement.

The Chinese government has not yet responded to the charges, but it is expected to do so in the near future.

In the meantime, the United Nations Security Council will continue to investigate the situation and will take appropriate action if the Chinese government fails to comply with its obligations under the border agreement.

Khrushchev Sends
Best Regards
To Kennedy

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Lyndon B. Johnson went to a meeting of the United Nations Security Council to discuss the situation. He said he expected the Chinese government to accept responsibility for the violation of the border agreement.

The meeting was attended by a group of experts from various countries, who were discussing the situation and taking steps to ensure that the Chinese government would comply with its obligations under the border agreement.

The meeting was adjourned for the day, and the experts will continue their work in the coming days.

Chinese Government Declares War

The declaration of war was made public on Sunday, following a meeting of the Chinese government's representatives with the United Nations Peacekeeping Forces in Lebanon.

The United Nations Peacekeeping Forces in Lebanon were established in 1982 to maintain peace and security in the region.

The Chinese government has accused the United States of supporting the United Nations Peacekeeping Forces in Lebanon, and has declared war on the United States.

The declaration of war has caused a crisis in the region, and the United Nations Peacekeeping Forces in Lebanon have been deployed to maintain peace and security.

The Chinese government has also accused the United States of supporting various armed groups in the region, and has declared war on the United States.

THE LANGUAGE PRESS AT A GLANCE

Yesterday the daily Indian Express reported the resignation of Mr. F. N. S. Athrey, the editor of the Persian-language newspaper, 'The Reception'. This is indeed a serious blow to the Persian-language press in India, which has been facing increasing difficulties in recent years. The resignations of editors and journalists have resulted in a decline in the quality of reporting and editing in the Persian-language press. The resignation of Mr. Athrey is a further blow to the press in India, which is already facing increasing difficulties in competing with the English-language press. The French Parliament has voted to end the arms embargo on the Soviet Union, which was imposed in 1971. The decision was made after weeks of tense debates and negotiations among political parties.

The vote was 322 in favor, 310 against, and 20 abstentions. The majority of the votes came from the Socialist and Green parties, while the Republicans and Union for French Democracy (UFD) opposed the lifting of the embargo.

The arms embargo was imposed by the French government in response to the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in 1979.

The decision was welcomed by Afghan politicians and civil society leaders, who praised the French government for taking a step towards peace and stability in the region.

The decision will now be presented to other European Union countries and the United Nations Security Council for their consideration.
