Call For Equality Among Big And Small Nations

PEKING, Oct. 1, (Reuters)—Red flags, banners and slogans decorated Peking streets yesterday as the capital made last-minute preparations yesterday for the 14th Anniversary of the People's Republic of China.

A Chinese official told a press conference that over 1,000 foreign guests in Peking would join the celebrations.

"This shows China isn't isolated but is all the more closely united with people of the world," he added.

"Diplomatic observers note that no foreign government or state leaders are here this year, and this year's appearance is to be the substitute for quality.

Chou Denies Soviet Charges

PREMIER, Oct. 1—Mr. Chou En-lai, in a reception speech on the eve of China's anniversary reception, said: "We firmly believe that the day will come when the present differences can be settled on the basis of Marxism-Leninism, Mr. Chou continued.

The Premier, however, did not elaborate on how the bitter ideological disputes and anti-Soviet sentiments will be resolved.

M. Chou: "Let us further strengthen the unity of all nations of the whole world, and to continue to strive for new victories of world peace, national liberation, peoples' democracy and socialism," Mr. Chou said.

Mr. Chou said: "The Chinese people have consistently followed the policy of friendly cooperation with all countries, big and small, and have always adhered to the principle of non-aggression as an auxiliary condition for the success of military campaigns and ideological struggles in general.

"We believe that each country should mainly rely on its own resources. The construction and development of this big country as China must be based on the unity of all nationalism and the unity of all the races."

Mr. Chou said: "We positively continue to support Indonesian Go-
