10-2-1963

Kabul Times (October 2, 1963, vol. 2 no. 177)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/449
FOUR POINTS ON PANJU RIVER SELECTED FOR HYDROMETRIC SURVEY
JOINT AFGHAN-SOVIET PROJECT

KABUL, October 1—A delegation led by engineer Mohammad Reza Abbasi, director of the Ministry of Water and Electricity, arrived in Kabul from Moscow on October 1. The delegation included Dr. Mushtaquddin, assistant director of the Ministry of Water and Electricity.

Dr. Abbasi explained that the four points on the Panj-U river selected for hydrometric surveys were those where the river enters the northern and southern provinces of Afghanistan. The surveys will be conducted by Afghan-Soviet engineers.

BERBER LEADER HOLDS POSITION IN MOUNTAINS

Ben Bella, leader of the Front de libération nationale algérien (FLN), has been re-elected as leader of the FLN. The election took place in the mountains of Algeria.

Mr. Bouh, the Algerian leader, said that Ben Bella's re-election was a victory for the FLN and the Algerian people.

U.S. DETERMINED TO HOLD GOLD PRICE AT PRESENT RATE OF $35 PER OUNCE
KENNEDY OPENS IMF MEETING

WASHINGTON, October 1—President Kennedy announced that the United States has determined to hold its gold price at the present rate of $35 per ounce. The President said the move was necessary to maintain international stability.

President Kennedy opened the International Monetary Fund meeting.

TEKAR KHUDAI KHIDMATGAR LEADER DIES

KABUL, October 1—Tender wants for the supply of medicine, pharmaceuticals, and medical equipment are being advertised in Kabul.

The President issued a statement expressing his condolences on the death of Tekar Khudai Khidmatgar, a leader of the National Front for Socialism and Popular Unity (AFSP).

The President said the government was determined to ensure that the rights of all citizens, particularly those of the minority groups, were protected.

The President added that the government was committed to maintaining law and order in the country.

CLASSIFIED ADVTY
Tenders Wanted

The United States government is seeking tenders for the supply of medicine, pharmaceuticals, and medical equipment.

The tender notices will be published in the press and in the official gazette.

The tender notices will be available from the Ministry of Health and Social Affairs.

The government is keen to ensure that the supply of medical equipment is efficient and timely.

The tender notices will be open for submission until October 31.
CHILDREN'S DAY TO BE OBSERVED TOMORROW
Elaborate Programme Arranged

The annual celebration of Children's Day will be held at Kabul on Monday. According to a plan of the Government, arrangements have been made to observe the day with great enthusiasm.

The day will be observed in a manner that will make the event memorable. The programme will include various activities, such as a cultural programme, games, and competitions. There will also be a special address by the Prime Minister.

The purpose of the celebration is to acknowledge the contributions of children to society and to promote the importance of children's education and welfare.

MASSER SUPPORTS MEDITERRANEAN NUCLEAR FREE ZONE

President Masser, speaking at the UN Geneva, has expressed his support for the Mediterranean Nuclear Free Zone. He has stated that the region is too important to sustain any risk of nuclear conflict.

The Mediterranean region is a vital area for international trade and energy. President Masser has emphasized the need to ensure the security of the region.

STOP CRITICIZING MY GOVERNMENT

Ayoob Applauds His Own Government

Ayub Khan, Pakistan's Prime Minister, has praised his government for its efforts to improve the country's economic situation. He has acknowledged the difficulties faced by the government, but he has also praised the efforts of the government to overcome these challenges.

Ayub Khan has emphasized the importance of continuing the efforts to improve the country's economic situation. He has also praised the efforts of the government to improve the country's infrastructure and education system.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

Tenders Wanted

Details about the tenders will be announced later. Interested parties are advised to contact the Government for further information.

U.K. ANNOUNCES READINESS TO JOIN EXAMINATION OF MIXED NUCLEAR NATO PLAN

The U.K. has announced its readiness to join the examination of the mixed nuclear NATO plan. The U.K. has stated that it is committed to the security of the region and that it will contribute to the examination of the plan.

The U.K. has also emphasized the importance of maintaining a strong alliance with the U.S. and other NATO countries.

THE WEATHER

Autumn weather set to continue

The weather forecast for the upcoming week predicts continued autumn weather. The temperatures are expected to remain cool and comfortable.

The conditions are ideal for outdoor activities, and it is recommended that people take advantage of the pleasant weather.

MEN AND WOMEN, WE SHALL FIGHT AS GUERRILLAS

Algerian Berber Leader Tells Two Thousand Berbers

The Algerian Berber leader has appealed to his people to fight as guerrillas against the French occupation. He has emphasized the importance of unity and self-determination.

The leader has called on his people to join the struggle against colonialism and to fight for their rights.

THE BODY OF THE LATE SARDAR INAYATULLAH KHAN INTERRED IN JALALABAD

The body of the late Sardar Inayatullah Khan was interred in Jalalabad yesterday. The funeral was attended by many prominent leaders and officials.

The late Sardar Inayatullah Khan was a prominent political leader and a vocal critic of the Soviet Union.

FRANCE PROTESTS AGAINST ALGERIA

Protests in Paris against the Algerian government

The French government has expressed its opposition to the Algerian government's actions. The protests in Paris have been called to show solidarity with the Algerian people.

The French government has emphasized the importance of respecting the rights of the Algerian people.

MONDAY'S WEATHER

Partly cloudy with a high of 15°C and a low of 8°C.

TODAY'S WEATHER

Sunny with a high of 20°C and a low of 10°C.