10-21-1963

Kabul Times (October 21, 1963, vol. 2 no. 192)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/459
Jirgas Held in Central, Northern Pakistan

KABUL, Oct. 20.—A report from Peshawar said that a Jirga attended by 200 tribal elders recently held in the northern Pakistan town of Chieh has been ended peacefully. The meeting was convened by a group of leaders from the Chieh area to discuss tribal affairs and resolve local disputes.

The Jirga opened with a prayer by the local religious leaders, followed by speeches from tribal leaders who addressed the gathering on a variety of issues. The group reached a consensus on several matters, including the need for better irrigation systems to improve agriculture and the importance of education for the youth. The Jirga was attended by representatives from the Peshawar government, who expressed their support for the Jirga's efforts to promote peace and development in the region.

KENYA’S INDEPENDENCE FOR DECEMBER TWELVE BEING CONFIRMED

LONDON, October 20 (AP).—It was confirmed today that Kenya’s Independence will be granted on December 12. The announcement was made by the Prime Minister, who said that the British government was confident of a smooth transition to self-governance. The Prime Minister also thanked the Kenyan people for their cooperation and support during the decolonization process.

Home News In Brief

KABUL, Oct. 20. — Jirgas attended by 200 tribal elders were held in the northern Pakistan town of Chieh to discuss tribal affairs and resolve local disputes.

USA Launches Two Satellites To Find Out Nuclear Tests

CAYMAN ISLANDS, October 20 (AP).—A nuclear test detection satellite was launched today by the United States to monitor nuclear explosions around the world. The satellite, known as the “Nuclear Monitors,” was launched from Vandenberg Air Force Base in California.

Too Early To Count Change In Soviet-US Relations As Permanent, Says Kennedy

WASHINGTON, October 23 (AP).—President Kennedy today said he was too early to count any change in the atmosphere of the Sino-Soviet dispute as permanent. Speaking at a press conference, Kennedy said that the recent soothing of differences did not mean the end of the conflict. He added that the United States would continue to stand by its commitments to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

HOME FORMS HIS CABINET

Richard Butler Becomes British Foreign Secretary

LONDON, October 20 (AP).—Richard Butler, 55, British Finance Secretary, was appointed today as new Foreign Secretary in the cabinet reshuffle. He succeeds Sir Alec Douglas-Home, who resigned last week.

The Weather

MAIMANA WINS CHAMPIONSHIP FLAG TO BE OBSERVED OCTOBER 21

ALGERIAN FOREIGN MINISTER FLIES TO MOROCCO

ALGERIAN ENVOY MEETS U. THANT IN NEW YORK

Classified Ads

For Sale

For sale: an American flag, 3 x 5 feet. Price: $10. Address: 123 Main St, KABUL.

ALGERIAN FOREIGN MINISTER FLIES TO MOROCCO

ALGERIAN ENVOY MEETS U. THANT IN NEW YORK

Classified Ads

For Sale

For sale: an American flag, 3 x 5 feet. Price: $10. Address: 123 Main St, KABUL.
ALGERIAN-MOROCCO CONFERENCE

Arab blood is being shed in Algeria, and Arab territory in that country is being divided up by the French government. The Algerian-Moroccan Conference, which met in Algiers, has resulted in the partitioning of the Algerian territories, with the creation of a French protectorate in Morocco. This decision is a direct threat to the independence of the two countries. The Algerians have been told that they must either accept the partition or face an armed struggle against the French forces. The situation is very tense and the Algerian people are struggling for their freedom.

INDONESIA AND MALAYSIA

THE LANGUAGE PROGRAMME

At a glance

People are not satisfied with the mere possibility of an improvement in the language. They want to see a real improvement in the language. They want to see the language used in their daily lives. They want to see the language used in the newspapers, on the radio, and on the television. They want to see the language used in the schools. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the hospitals. They want to see the language used in the universities. They want to see the language used in the churches. They want to see the language used in the mosques. They want to see the language used in the temples. They want to see the language used in the libraries. They want to see the language used in the museums. They want to see the language used in the theaters. They want to see the language used in the concert halls. They want to see the language used in the parks. They want to see the language used in the gardens. They want to see the language used in the schools. They want to see the language used in the hospitals. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories. They want to see the language used in the homes. They want to see the language used in the streets. They want to see the language used in the shops. They want to see the language used in the factories.