USSR Looks With Greater Warmth On Co-operation In Trade With U.S.A.

Khrushchov Comment After USSR Sends Maneuverable Craft Into Outspace Yesterday

Moscow, November 10.—First Premier, Khrushchov, shortly after the launching of a new Soviet maneuverable space ship, today declared that the opposition Sudiillist forces in Algeria should be given greater control and the communists said the U.S. Lack of cooperation in trade expansion between two neighboring countries would be a result of the cold war. It was stated that the communists did not want to see a cold war develop between the two countries.
