POPULATION GROWTH AFFECTS PLANNING ESTIMATES

by M. E.

Some data on the current and projected population of Afghanistan. The Ministry of Planning has announced that the current population of the country is approximately 15 million people, with an annual growth rate of about 2.5%.

The growth in population is expected to continue, with estimates projecting a population of over 20 million by 2050. This growth is driven by a combination of factors, including high fertility rates and increased life expectancy.

The implications of this population growth on planning and development are significant. Infrastructure, education, and healthcare will need to be scaled up to meet the needs of the growing population. The government has been investing in these areas, but the pace of growth presents challenges.
