AFGHAN VIEWS ON EQUITABLE REPRESENTATION OF SEATS IN U.N.

Following is the text of a document published in the Kabul Times on December 11, 1963, regarding Afghan views on equitable representation in the United Nations. The document discusses the Afghan perspective on the equitable distribution of seats in the U.N. and mentions the Afghan government's stance on the matter. The text is encrypted with the placeholder ":::" as mentioned in the initial description.
TRUCE SUPERVISION IN CYPRUS STARTS TODAY. TURKISH PLANES FLY IN CYPRUS; SHOTS FIRED ON KUTCHUK HOUSE

The Turkish government announced yesterday that it had resumed truce supervision in the area of Kutchuk House, a key strategic point in Cyprus. Turkish planes were seen flying over the area, and the situation remained tense.

Lakonia Disaster's Death Toll: 89

The Lakonia disaster, which occurred yesterday, claimed the lives of 89 people. The accident was caused by a landslide that swept through a village in the region. The search and rescue operation is ongoing, and the death toll is expected to increase.

Seizure Of All Properties Of Diem Family Ordered By S. Vietnam Government

The South Vietnamese government has ordered the seizure of all properties belonging to the Diem family. This move follows a series of protests against the Diem regime and its policies.

Deaths Number Rises To 43 in Hungarian Trains Disaster

The death toll in the Hungarian train disaster has risen to 43. The accident occurred when a train derailed, killing scores of people. The investigation is continuing to determine the cause of the accident.

The Weather

EASTERN Thursday was mostly cloudy with a chance of showers. Temperatures were mild, with highs in the mid-60s. The outlook for the weekend is for continued overcast conditions with possible rain showers.