Socialist Bloc Producing 40 Per Cent of World's Industrial Goods Output

The Eastern bloc countries now produce about 40 per cent of world's industrial goods, the Soviet news agency TASS claimed Sunday night.

The production of world industrial goods by the United States, it said, had increased from 30 per cent to 35 per cent in the last five years. But the bloc countries had increased their production from 31 per cent to 40 per cent in the same period.

The bloc's growth for 1963 was of the order of 18 per cent in value, compared with 3 per cent in the US.

Local economic planners in the bloc countries are now working on plans for further industrial development.

The bloc has made the remarkable progress in the last five years, it said, by developing their own raw materials which had been produced in the past at a high cost.

The bloc has also during this period built a network of regional production, including the Annanovba textile mill in the Caucasus.
