Stewart asks U.S. to consider world opinion in choosing means of fighting in Vietnam

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP) - Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, who partly set the stage for the Vietnam War, was asked yesterday by the chairmen of the Senate Committee on Armed Services to consider world opinion in choosing means of fighting in Vietnam.

"I don't think we have the same freedom of action as we had when we started," said the chairman, J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., in a press conference. "I think we ought to be aware of that."

"I think we ought to consider the way we import the war in Vietnam," said the chairman.

Formation Of Political Parties In Afghanistan

NEED FOR CODE OF ETHICS

In the absence of political parties, the need for a code of ethics becomes crucial. Without established political parties, there is a vacuum that needs to be filled with a formal set of guidelines and standards. This is particularly necessary in a society where traditional values and norms may not always provide clear boundaries for behavior. A code of ethics would help establish a framework for decision-making and actions, ensuring that individuals and organizations operate within a moral and ethical compass.

THE COMPLEX OF EUROPEAN POLITICS

Europe is a continent that is often characterized by its complexity and diversity. The political landscape is shaped by a multitude of factors, including historical legacies, economic conditions, and cultural influences. Each country within Europe has its unique challenges and priorities, which contribute to the overall dynamic of the continent.

Barak Younus

Ad From Erhard

The former Chancellor of Germany, Helmut Kohl, has requested that President Erhard be a guest at the upcoming conference in Germany. This move is seen as part of a broader strategy to strengthen the political ties between the two countries. It is expected that the presence of Erhard will help foster a spirit of cooperation and understanding between Germany and Afghanistan.

Barrani Requests

In response to the recent requests by the United Nations for military assistance, Afghanistan has announced its willingness to provide support. This decision is significant as it shows the commitment of the Afghan government to play a more active role in regional security and stability.
Finance Ministry Explains Reasons For Imposing Tolls

MOSCOW, March 10—The Finance Ministry, stating that the tolls imposed on the two main highways are a means of repaying the debt to the Soviet government, explained the tolls.

The government appropriation this year is 830 million rubles for the upkeep and working of the highways.

When the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Transport and the Ministry of the Interior examined the question of tolls, they decided to impose them on the two main highways of the country.

They also decided to impose tolls on the highways of the USSR which are under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of the Interior.

Ministry of Roads, which has the responsibility for the upkeep and working of the highways, has been asked to submit a project for the tolls on the two main highways.
