French, Soviets Discuss European Security In Paris

PARIS, April 28 (UPI)—The French and Soviet foreign ministers agreed here today on basic principles with regard to European security including a “zone of peace.”

The Foreign Ministers held a three-hour meeting here today, the first between a French and a Soviet representative since 1962. They agreed on the need to work for the “exclusion of nuclear weapons from Europe” and “the elimination of a new nuclear arms race.”

A joint communique issued by the two foreign ministers said they hoped to meet again in three months to review progress on the “process of de-escalation” and “steps towards disarmament.”

A U.S. official who was present said the meeting was “very cordial” and that the French and Soviet diplomats had “exchanged views on a wide range of issues.”

French Only Send Observer to SEATO Military Council
LONDON, April 28 (Reuter) — Military advisors of the Southeast Asia Treaty Orga- nization meet here today to grapple with the problems of the Vietnam War and the threat of a Soviet military council.

The opening of their two-day conference, at a full- scale meeting of SEATO foreign ministers next week—marks the end of the first decade of the Southeast Asian Treaty Organization.

The French foreign minister, who is expected to return to Vietnam this week, said that SEA- TO should be the forum in which to establish a new mechanism for the prevention of war in the Far East.

The council will then meet again when Poland and the Czechoslovakian delegate have returned to their posts.

U.S. Actor Dies in Plane Crash
(From page 1) March's last movie was "Seven Days in May," a film in which he played the part of the American President. His fe- male co-star was Robert Mitchum. The movie is expected to open in May at the New York Film Festival. The film is considered to be a contender for the Academy Awards.

The "Seven Days in May" movie has been praised by movie critics for its realism and its depiction of the political and military struggles of the time.

Employment Bureau Approached By 130 During Month
KABUL, April 26—Over 130 people approached the National Employment Bureau for employment last month, with the report issued by the Bureau. Most of them sought work in the government schools, police force, and primary schools. Only 26 of them were accepted.

The report expresses concern over lack of cooperation from government schools, police force, and primary schools and a need for increased efforts in the recruitment process. The Bureau was not approached by many skilled workers either.
