Fatherland front

An earthquake, of force four (on the 12-point scale) locked Tashkent at two hours 18 minutes of Moscow time yesterday. The force of the quake in the epicentre near the western suburb of Tashkent was over five points. The quake has caused no damage to the biggest city of Soviet Central Asia.

It was the 200th earthquake after the quake of force near eight points at the epicentre, which took place here on December 11, 1980. (Continued from page 1)

An other function was held on the occasion by the workers and employees of the Cartography Geodesy Department, the National Petroleum Company, Post, Telephones and Telegraph Department and Publications Department of the Ministry of National Defence, sponsored by the 113 party precinct of the city last Thursday was addressed by Dr. Shaheen, Vice President of the city committee of Kabul.

Most up-to-date weapons are being purchased for colossal sums of money in the USA, China, the UK, the FRG, and France. In December last year, for instance, it became known that...
