1-25-1966

Kabul Times (January 25, 1966, vol. 4, no. 250)

Bakhtar News Agency

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes

Part of the International and Area Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.unomaha.edu/kabultimes/901
Good Neighbourly Relations Between Afghanistan, USSR Stressed In Pravda Article

KABUL TIMES

January 26, 1983

The article criticizes the current state of affairs in Afghanistan, blaming the withdrawal of the Mujahideen from the reunification talks as a setback. The author argues that the Afghan army's recent victory was due to external factors, not the country's own efforts.

British Elections

The article discusses the upcoming general election in the United Kingdom, which is expected to be a close contest between the Conservative and Labour parties. The author predicts that the Conservative party will likely secure a majority, although the outcome is uncertain.

Nuclear Device Dropped In Florida

A bomb was dropped in Cuba on a Florida tourist resort, killing eight Afghans. The article reports that the incident was a result of a dispute over a minor dispute over a debt.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club held a special meeting to discuss the latest developments in the French economy and politics. The president of the club, Monsieur Dupont, delivered a speech on the importance of French culture and its influence on the world.

Student Delegation Leaves For India

A delegation of students from Kabul University is set to travel to India to study the latest developments in Indian politics and culture. The delegation will be led by Professor Khan and will include representatives from all major universities in Kabul.

PIA BIG JET INTERNATIONAL SERVICES

Pakhto Academy

Gold Trophy Page 3

Premier Works To Carry Out Domestic Plans, Urges Regional Leaders To Meet

KABUL TIMES

January 26, 1983

Theprime minister announced plans to carry out domestic policies and urged regional leaders to meet to discuss the future of the region. The minister said that the government was committed to implementing the policies outlined in the recent conference.

Premier's Speech At Rally In India

A rally was held in India to support the premier's policy. The premier's speech was delivered at the rally, and it was hoped that the rally would help to increase support for the policy.

177 Die As Airliner Crashes On Mont Blanc

An airplane crashed on the Mont Blanc, killing 177 people. The plane was carrying a group of tourists from the United States. The crash was caused by a mechanical failure, and the investigation is ongoing.

Tunisia Independence Celebrated

Tunisia celebrated its independence from France. The celebration was marked by a large rally and a speech by the president. The president stated that the country was determined to maintain its independence and to build a strong nation.

New Climate

A new climate has been established in the region, with the cooling of the ocean and the warming of the land. The change is expected to have a significant impact on the region's agriculture and economy.

No Place For Violence

The prime minister announced that there would be no place for violence in the region. The government was committed to maintaining law and order and ensuring the safety of its citizens.

Pakistan Returns Two Million Afghans

Pakistan has returned two million Afghans to their homeland. The prime minister said that the government was committed to assisting the return of refugees.
Afghanistan Steps Up Commerce, Industry

Prime Minister's Id Message

Prime Minister Mohammad Daoud Khan, whose visit to the United States has already been publicly announced, will soon leave for Washington, D.C. to discuss the economic relations between the two countries.

The Prime Minister will hold talks with the Prime Minister of the United States and other American officials. It is expected that the discussions will focus on ways to enhance bilateral trade and investment between the two countries.

The Afghan government has been working to improve its economic situation and the Prime Minister's visit is seen as an opportunity to strengthen ties with the United States.

News Analysis:

Middle East Tries Private Enterprise

The Middle East is currently witnessing a shift towards private enterprise, as government-controlled industries are being privatized. This move is aimed at increasing efficiency and reducing costs.

A number of private companies have already been established in the Middle East, and the trend is expected to continue. This change is seen as a positive development that will benefit the region.

Lack of Money Threatens UN Peacekeeping Forces

The lack of funds is impacting the ability of the UN Peacekeeping Forces to carry out their missions.

The UN Peacekeeping Forces have been deployed in various parts of the world, but the lack of funding is making it difficult for them to continue their operations.

UN Secretary-General

The UN Secretary-General has called on the member states to contribute more funds to the UN Peacekeeping Forces.

Grapes: Family Vineyard to World Market

In Parwan, in north Afghanistan, a family vineyard has developed into a major supplier of grapes to the world market.

The grape farm, located in the Parwan Province, produces high-quality grapes that are exported to Europe and the United States.

A typical scene in a village of Parwan

A view of the silk road just outside Jabal Hosein.

The shops in Charikar were as busy here before the Id as those in Kabul.

Outside wall of a sugarcane factory— the room where grapes are hung to dry to make sugar. The holes in the wall speed the drying process by giving ventilation.

The grapes are harvested and processed in the kilns before being exported to the world market.
Prime Minister's Id Message
Prime Minister Mohammad Daoud in a message addressed to the people of Afghanistan has emphasized the importance of implementing the government's policies for the development of the country.

Afghanistan Steps Up Commerce, Industry
Following is an article appearing in the November 28, 1966, issue of the Kabul Times, a newspaper published in Afghanistan.

Parwan
Satang Road Turns Parwan Province Into Crossroads For Tourists And Merchants

The Satang Road, which was opened last year, has become a major route for tourists and merchants. It connects the provinces of Parwan and Bagram, facilitating trade and tourism.

Grapes: Family Vineyard To World Market

The situation of Parwan, located in the north of Afghanistan, is a significant example of how a family vineyard can become a large-scale commercial operation.

Backroads of the Hindu Kush

The road to Khenjan, Tanour, passes through some of the most scenic areas in Afghanistan. The road winds its way through the mountains, offering breathtaking views.

With the completion of the Salang Highway, Parwan became a crossroads for tourists and merchants. The road opened up new possibilities for the province, making it a hub of economic activity.

The road to Khenjan, Tanour, is a scenic route that offers panoramic views of the Hindu Kush mountains. It is a popular destination for tourists and a thriving center for commerce.

A typical house in a village of Parwan

A view of the Satang road just outside Kabul.
Close Cooperation Of All People Necessary To Carry Out Development, Says Maimandwal

KARAK, Jan 25.-Concluding his visit here, the new Prime Minister of Afghanistan, Mr. Maimandwal, the current day in a speech broadcast over Radio Afghanistan, said that development and education were the key to progress in the country. He said that the government was committed to the development of the country and that it would work towards this goal.

"The government is committed to the development of the country," he said. "We will work hard to ensure that everyone has access to education and that the country is developed in all areas."

Sen. Fulbright Proposes U.S. Recognize Viet Cong: Da Nang Base Attacked As Truce Ends

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25, (AP).-Sen. Fulbright (D) of Arkansas has proposed that the United States recognize the Viet Cong as a political force in South Vietnam. The announcement came as reports of attacks on a U.S. base at Da Nang threatened to upset the truce agreements recently made.

In a speech in the Senate today, Sen. Fulbright said that the Viet Cong had been "subjected to all sorts of indignities," and he called for their recognition as a political force. He said that the Viet Cong had played a "constructive role" in the development of the country and that they should be given a "fair hearing.

Weather Forces Police To Give Up Search For Victims Of Mont Blanc Plane Crash

NEW YORK, Jan. 25, (AP).-Weather forces the police to give up their search for the 20 victims of the Mont Blanc plane crash. The search was called off at 10 p.m. last night because of the weather.

A plane carrying 24 people crashed in the Mont Blanc mountains in France yesterday. The plane was carrying a party of American tourists who were on their way back from a ski vacation in the Alps.

U.S. Budget Includes Funds For Basic Research

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25...-The new U.S. budget includes funds for basic research. The budget recommends $5.3 billion for basic research in the fiscal year at the beginning July at $5.316.8 million.

This is in addition to the $3.9 billion already appropriated for basic research in the fiscal year ending June 30.

The U.S. budget recommends that the program be increased by $1 billion over the next five years to $11 billion.

The government will still allocate $4.3 billion for research in the field of economic, social and cultural development.

Buildings Used In 6,800 B.C. Found In Southern Jordan

AMMAN, Jan. 25...-Excavations in the southern Jordan desert have uncovered buildings believed to have been constructed in 6,800 B.C.

The buildings were discovered by a team of archaeologists led by Dr. Nader Pashbok, an expert in ancient Jordanian architecture.

The buildings are believed to have been used for agricultural purposes, such as storing grain and other produce.

145 Students Pass Engineering Exam

KABUL, Jan. 25...-A total of 145 students passed the engineering exam at the Kabul Engineering College on the first day of the annual examination period.

The exam is held annually to assess the knowledge and skills of students in engineering fields.

Marks Sold To Importers Of Consumers Goods

KABUL, Jan. 25...-The Ministry of Public Health has asked the government to sell marks to importers of consumer goods.

The government has been asked to sell marks to importers of consumer goods to help them cope with the current economic situation.

U.S. Military Experts Visit South Vietnam

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25...-A team of U.S. military experts is visiting South Vietnam to assess the impact of the truce agreements.

The experts will visit the country to assess the impact of the truce agreements and to determine whether they have been successful.

Weather Forces Police To Give Up Search For Victims Of Mont Blanc Plane Crash

NEW YORK, Jan. 25, (AP).-Weather forces the police to give up their search for the 20 victims of the Mont Blanc plane crash. The search was called off at 10 p.m. last night because of the weather.

A plane carrying 24 people crashed in the Mont Blanc mountains in France yesterday. The plane was carrying a party of American tourists who were on their way back from a ski vacation in the Alps.

145 Students Pass Engineering Exam

KABUL, Jan. 25...-A total of 145 students passed the engineering exam at the Kabul Engineering College on the first day of the annual examination period.

The exam is held annually to assess the knowledge and skills of students in engineering fields.

Marks Sold To Importers Of Consumers Goods

KABUL, Jan. 25...-The Ministry of Public Health has asked the government to sell marks to importers of consumer goods.

The government has been asked to sell marks to importers of consumer goods to help them cope with the current economic situation.

U.S. Military Experts Visit South Vietnam

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25...-A team of U.S. military experts is visiting South Vietnam to assess the impact of the truce agreements.

The experts will visit the country to assess the impact of the truce agreements and to determine whether they have been successful.