Tito Nasser Call For End To Air Attacks On N. Vietnam

CAIRO, May 1, (Reuters).—President Tito and Nasser have stated that the Vietnam problem constituted great dangers to world peace and emphasized the need for its peaceful solution through negotiation.

A communiqué issued last night at the end of President Tito's visit to the United Arab Republic, the two leaders called for an end to air attacks on North Vietnam and for "realization of the legitimate aspirations of the Vietnamese people...."

Referring to Vietnam, the communiqué said, every effort should be made to realize peace by implementing the Geneva agreements. The two presidents expressed their deep concern over the situation in Southeast Asia and came to the conclusion that the Vietnamese issue poses an "enormous threat to world peace."

They reaffirmed the conviction that there was no alternative to the United Nations and that all peace-loving forces should cooperate in restoring its efficiency and prestige and enable it to fulfill its basic functions.

The communiqué also reaffirmed their adherence to the policy of peaceful co-existence in this over-armed world as the only way to remove the danger of war.

The communiqué said serious actions were imperative to achieve complete disarmament and stressed the need to prevent the dislocation of international stability.

The communiqué said they also insisted on the need to liquidate the Gromyko Returns From Paris Talks

MOGOW, May 1, (TASS).—Andrei Gromyko, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the U.S.S.R., returned to Moscow from Paris where he was on an official visit at the invitation of the French government.

The Soviet Minister exchanged opinions with the French Foreign Minister, Geure de Muriel, on main problems of international affairs and also on Soviet-French relations.

Soviets To Help Formulate Afghanistan's Third Five Year Plan, Joint Communique Says

KABUL, May 1—The Soviet government has agreed to send experts to help Afghanistan in efforts to draw up its third five year development plan.

According to the joint communiqué issued yesterday in Kabul and Moscow, Prime Minister Mr. Mohammad Youssuf Zahir, during his official visit to the Soviet Union, both countries agreed that economic and technical cooperation between them, based on equality and mutual interest of the two nations and will therefore be continued.

The Prime Minister returned to Kabul after a six days' visit in the Soviet Union, during which he spent ten days in the capital.

In the communist bloc, both parties have already accused the U.S. of trying to subvert the mutual confidence and goodwill between Afghanistan and the two countries and the growing friendship between their peoples. Both countries have praised the fact that cooperation and friendship between them, as enshrined in the communiqué on page 3.

Johnson Says Principles Of Inter-American System In Danger In DominicanRepublic

OAS To Investigate Causes Of Dominican Republic Revolt

Washington, May 3, 1963

The United States Ambassador to the Inter-American Commission said Wednesday that he was seeking information from the governmen of the Dominican Republic about the recent coup d'etat. An official report from the U.S. Embassy in Santo Domingo said that the coup was the result of a plot by members of the military to seize control of the government and that the coup leaders had been arrested.

The ambassador, J. William Fulbright, said that the U.S. government was concerned about the situation in the Dominican Republic and was seeking to determine the extent of American involvement in the coup. The coup was the latest in a series of political upheavals in the Caribbean and Central America, including the recent coup in Guatemala and the attempted coup in Costa Rica.

The ambassador also said that the United States was continuing to provide aid to the Dominican government, including military assistance, in an effort to stabilize the situation.
