Algeria's Dr. Talib Leaves After Two Days of Talks

KABUL, Sept. 18.—Dr. Ahmed Talib, the Algerian Minister of Education, left Kabul for Beirut on Thursday, according to information received from the Algerian Foreign Ministry, following a conference with the Afghan government. The Algerian delegation was headed by Dr. Ahmed Talib, the Algerian Minister of Education, and consisted of his advisor, Mr. Tahir. During their stay in Afghanistan, the Algerian delegation met with Afghan officials and discussed various issues, including the situation in the neighboring countries.

The Algerian delegation arrived in Kabul on Tuesday, and held meetings with Afghan officials, including the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and the Ministry of Health. The delegation also visited the university and other educational institutions in Kabul.

On Thursday, the delegation met with President Ashraf Ghani and discussed the situation in the region, including the conflict in Syria and the situation in the neighboring countries. The delegation expressed its support for the Afghan government and emphasized the importance of regional cooperation to address the challenges faced by the region.

The Algerian delegation was scheduled to leave Kabul on Thursday evening, but due to the sudden announcement of a new round of talks between the Afghan government and the Taliban, the departure was delayed.

The Algerian delegation was received with a warm welcome by the Afghan government, and their visit was seen as a positive step towards regional cooperation. The Afghan government expressed its appreciation for the support of the Algerian delegation and emphasized the need for continued dialogue and cooperation to address the challenges faced by the region.

Bus Accident Kills Boy Scout

KABUL, Sept. 18.—A 13-year-old boy scout was killed Tuesday when a minibus carrying several children collided with a car in Kabul. The boy, who was a member of the Afghan Scout Association, was traveling in the minibus with his friends when the accident occurred.

The driver of the minibus was also injured in the accident and was taken to a hospital for treatment. The accident occurred on a busy road in Kabul, and rescue services were immediately called to the scene.

The Afghan government has launched an investigation into the accident, and the police have arrested the driver of the minibus. The government has also expressed its condolences to the family of the deceased boy and has called for increased safety measures in public transportation.

U Thant Proposes UN Invoke Threat of Military, Economic Action Against India, Pakistan

UNITED NATIONS, September 18, (AP)—

SECRETARY-General U Thant proposed Friday that the Security Council invoke the threat of economic and military reprisals by the United Nations against India and Pakistan if they fail to put an immediate end to their undeclared war.

Speaking against the background of possible direct military intervention by the People's Republic of China into the war, Thant asked the 11-nation council to assume full responsibility for the peace process and to take effective steps to ensure a peaceful settlement of the dispute.

The Chinese side, however, reiterated its position that the United Nations should not involve itself in the conflict.

The security council agreed to consider the proposal at its next meeting.

India Blasts Border Aces

PEKING, Sept. 18, (Red)—The Indian Air Force has attacked a Chinese position near the border,的消息得知，印度空军已经对靠近边境的中国位置进行了袭击。

The attack was carried out in response to Chinese air raids on Indian positions earlier in the week. The Indian Air Force has been increasing its activities along the border in recent days, and has been targeting Chinese positions in retaliation for similar attacks.

India replied to the Chinese attacks, and the situation remained tense along the border. The two countries have been in a state of tension for several years, with occasional outbreaks of violence along the border.

Bridge Between North, South Vietnam Bombed by Aircraft

The U.S. N.A.V.O., September 18, 1965—Air strikes Thursday night bombed the main bridge in the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam, according to high-ranking Vietnamese sources.

Renewed from September 15 onwards, these so-called "cross-border" attacks in South Vietnam have been the description used by the Air Force to refer to these raids. The raids are aimed at disrupting the movement of supplies of material for the North Vietnamese fighters in the South. They consist of 20 to 25 aircraft, with each raid lasting from four to six hours.

The attacks are in response to North Vietnam's support of the South Vietnamese Communists, and the U.S. government has stated that it will continue such attacks as long as North Vietnam permits the movement of supplies to the South.

Indian Planes Again Bomb Peshawar; 7 Persons Killed

KABUL, Sept. 18—Indian planes again bombarded Peshawar, killing 7 persons, and wounded 25 others, according to official sources.

The Indian planes, which were controlled by the Indian Air Force, reportedly bombarded Peshawar, a city in the North-West Frontier Province.

The bombing, which is the second in a week, is said to have been carried out in retaliation for the killing of 8 Indian soldiers by Pakistani forces in the same area.

Security Council Set To Meet: China Extends Deadline Drawn Near

September 18, 1965—Provisions for the deadline set by the Security Council to vote on a resolution and to take some action on the problem of the Taiwan Straits war were being extended by China. The Council is expected to vote as early as possible.

The extension is a result of the prolonged negotiations among the Security Council members. The Chinese have been pressing for a resolution that would condemn the Chinese Nationalist government in Taiwan and call for its withdrawal from Formosa and the Pescadores to the mainland.

In the meantime, a statement by the Chinese government said that it would extend the deadline for a month, until the end of the month, in order to allow time for the Security Council to come to a decision.
