Health during World War.

Nangarhar University.

Visit the College of Medicine, given by Aqelabb."

The United States is assisting, the President has also served as a cameo in the picture with U.S. Ambassador John Miller Bland. Left to right are Commander John O'Neill, the President of the College, and Senator Edward Kennedy of North Carolina.

Ayub, Johnson Stress Need For Peaceful Settlements

WASHINGTON, December 18, (Reuters) - President Johnson and President Ayub Khan of Pakistan yesterday jointly agreed on the need for a peaceful settlement of the differences between India and Pakistan.

A joint declaration signed in New Delhi stated that both countries will continue to work for peace.

The agreement was reached after discussions between President Johnson and Prime Minister Ayub, which lasted for over six hours.

The two leaders also agreed to continue their discussions on a bilateral basis.

AFGHAN WOOL INDUSTRY NEW STORE

Be the first in style with this new store in the heart of downtown.

AFGHAN WOOL INDUSTRY

AFGHAN WOOL INDUSTRY NEW STORE

Noorzai; Minister of Public Security, has issued instructions to the police and the people of Afghanistan that these demonstrations should not disrupt peace and order.

The Minister has also said that the police and the people of Afghanistan should continue to work for peace.

AFGHAN WOOL INDUSTRY NEW STORE

A conference was held with the United Nations and the Afghan government.

The conference was attended by the UN representative, the Afghan minister, and representatives from the United States.

Cyclone Batters East Pakistan

KARACHI, Dec. 18, (AP) - A cyclone has hit East Pakistan, bringing destruction and flooding to the region.

The cyclone is expected to cause widespread damage and loss of life.

The weather is expected to improve in the next few days.

UN Committee Favors Continuing Cyprus Mediations

A conference was held in New York on the situation in Cyprus.

The conference was attended by representatives of Cyprus and the UN.

North Vietnam Puts Out New Feelers For Negotiations

HANOI, December 18, (Reuters) - North Vietnam has put out new feelers for negotiations.

The Vietnamese government has indicated that it is ready to negotiate with the United States.

Royal Audience

KARUL, December 18, (AP) - The President of the United States, Lyndon B. Johnson, will be in Afghanistan to meet with the President of the United States, John F. Kennedy.

The meeting will take place on December 18.

The President of the United States is expected to discuss matters of mutual interest.

Britain Imposes Oil Embargo

London, December 18, (Reuters) - Britain has imposed an oil embargo on Jordan.

The embargo was imposed due to the situation in the Middle East.

The embargo will last for six months.

Body to Investigate Plots Allotment by Municipality

The Kabul Municipal Administration has been warned to investigate the plots allotted to the body.

The body has been asked to report its findings to the government.

The body has been asked to report its findings to the government.

Gemini 7 Returns To Earth Today

The Gemini 7 spacecraft has returned to Earth.

The spacecraft was launched on December 18 and has been orbiting the Earth.

The spacecraft will land in the Pacific Ocean.