Kabul Times (April 25, 1966, vol. 5, no. 27)

Bakhtar News Agency
Opportunity For Businesses

Now that the central business district of Kabul is being developed, opportunities for business growth are abundant. A variety of services such as banking, insurance, and real estate are becoming more prevalent.

Wooli Jangal's Internal Procedure: Law

The law surrounding wooli Jangal's internal procedure is complex. The government is working on a comprehensive plan that will establish clear guidelines for future operations.

DANGER OF WIDENING GAP BETWEEN RICH, POOR

The growing disparity between the rich and the poor is a concern for the government.
Efforts are being made to address this issue through various social programs.

U.S. Troops in S. Vietnam Reach 240,000

The number of U.S. troops in South Vietnam has reached 240,000, marking a significant milestone in the Vietnam War.

E. W. German Politicians Plan Exchange

E. W. German politicians plan to exchange visits as part of efforts to strengthen bilateral ties.

Senior Citizen's Pet Cook Pots

About 1,000 people enjoyed their meal of grilled chicken. The cook was a favorite among the attendees.

Air Maintenance Trainee Of French T.E. School

Air Maintenance trainees are being trained at the French T.E. School to maintain aircraft.

Mother-in-Law Makes Me Feel Faint

My mother-in-law makes me feel faint.

All About Women

Five "Stones" Rolled Through W. Germany

Five "Stones" were rolled through West Germany as part of the post-war recovery efforts.

Bakuva For Desert